

2-2-1907

The Paducah Evening Sun, February 2, 1907

The Paducah Evening Sun

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/pes>

---

Recommended Citation

The Paducah Evening Sun, "The Paducah Evening Sun, February 2, 1907" (1907). The Paducah Evening Sun. 279.

<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/pes/279>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Paducah Evening Sun by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

The Paducah Evening Sun.

VOL. XXI. NO. 29

PADUCAH, KY., SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 2, 1907.

10 CENTS PER WEEK

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY COMMERCIAL CLUB

H. C. Rhodes, of Rhodes-Burford Company, Elected President to Succeed Joseph L. Friedman—Harmonious Meeting of Directors Today

EXCELLENT MEN ARE SELECTED

Officers Elected.
President—H. C. Rhodes.
First Vice Pres.—W. C. Hummel.
Second Vice Pres.—Sol Dreyfuss.
Treasurer—James Weille.
At the first meeting this morning of the new board of directors of the Commercial club, composed of representative business men, officers were elected for the ensuing year. It was a well attended meeting and the best of spirit prevailed. H. C. Rhodes, who was first vice-president, was elected president. Mr. Rhodes is at the head of the Rhodes-Burford company, having recently acquired a controlling interest in the local branch of the big concern.
W. P. Hummel, of Hummel Bros., the second vice-president, was promoted. He is one of the hard working members of the organization.
Mr. Sol Dreyfuss, president of the Dreyfuss, Weil company, was elected to succeed Mr. Hummel.
Mr. James Weille, of B. Weille & Son, was chosen treasurer. All the officers are members of tried and proven service in the Commercial club, who attend meetings regularly and devote many hours to the work.
The election of a secretary follows after the new organization is completed.

COON WHIPS DOG.

Pet of Mrs Ben Wilkins Arouses the Neighborhood.

A pet coon whose wild nature was aroused by the attack of two roving dogs which tramped on its private ground, put up a fight that awakened the entire neighborhood at Eleventh and Trimble streets this morning at 2 o'clock. The coon won out, and the dogs sneaked away in the darkness as if ashamed of the poor showing made. Mrs. Ben Wilkins, of 1134 Trimble street, owns the coon. It got out of the house last night and while peacefully walking about the back yard was attacked by two large dogs. The coon ran into a dog house and for a time the dogs would not venture in. Finally one succeeded in breaking the coon's guard and the din resulting from the fight at close quarters in the small box house brought all the neighbors out.

Sat Facing Corpse.

Sharon, Pa., Feb. 2.—In a fit of temporary insanity Hamilton Wright shot and killed his wife today and then reloaded the revolver and telephoned the police. He sat facing the body of his wife until the officers arrived. Wright is now rational and claims the trouble started over money matters.

Transfer Boat Running.

This morning the Illinois Central transfer boat was able to land at the cradle and transfer trains from Brookport for the first time in over a week.

Crab and Rat Engage in Struggle of Life and Death on Stairsteps

A battle with a rat and salt water crab as principals, is the latest in sports Paducah offers. The story may sound "fishy," but is vouched for. A well known Paducah stationer is fond of salt water crabs, and recently received a consignment from Maine. Taking one from the ice packing he placed it by his stove, curious to know how long it would live in the open air. He watched the heat slowly enliven the crab and when the store was closed for the night it had worked its way under the stove and was calmly reposing. On his return the next morning the stationer missed the crab. He searched thoroughly on the ground floor but failed to locate it. A peculiar knocking sound above annoyed him, and he started upstairs to investigate. On the top step he found

GIANT'S BLOOD TO SAVE GIRL. Yale Athlete Offers Fluid for Veins of Platt's Sick Granddaughter.

New York, Feb. 2.—Heroic measures were decided on today to save the life of Miss Ellen B. Platt, daughter of Senator Thomas C. Platt, who is critically ill of typhoid fever. By the transfusion of blood from a healthy person it is hoped to conquer the disease.

When it was announced that this operation was necessary, a search for a proper subject was begun. Livingston Platt was informed of his sister's condition. He confided to some of his most intimate friends in the senior class at Yale, and one of them offered himself as a subject.

This young man is a giant in strength. He is more than six feet tall and his perfect condition, the physicians say, makes him an ideal subject for the unusual sacrifice.

GROUNDHOG SAW HIS OWN SHADOW

"23" was writ large in the heavens this afternoon for Mr. Groundhog. After a cloudy morning that promised anything but a continuance of the winter, the sun burst forth at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, and according to custom, Mr. Groundhog, frightened at his own shadow, hurried back into his hole to await the lapse of another six weeks of winter.

Mr. John Bourne.

Mrs. W. G. Whitefield received a telegram today announcing the death of Mr. John Bourne at his home in Ghent, Ky., this morning from pneumonia. He is the father of Mrs. W. H. Pinkerton, of Paducah, who was called to Ghent last Sunday on account of his serious illness. Mr. Bourne visited the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Pinkerton here about 12 years ago and made a pleasant impression on all who met him.

Boyd Shot Himself.

New York, Feb. 2.—John Boyd, of Brooklyn, after an attempt to awaken Assemblyman Donohue, who shot himself last Thursday, went into a saloon early today and shot himself just as Donohue did. Boyd was an intimate friend and trusted political follower of Donohue.

Is a Millionaire.

Louisville, Feb. 2.—James Vanwoert, former laundryman, inventor and speculator, who died at the hospital here, had in his possession deeds for over a million acres of land in Kentucky, Virginia, Georgia and West Virginia.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

ALL IS GAMBLING.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 2.—The legislative committee has refused to exclude bridge whist and euchre parties from gambling bills. Parlor games will be closed along with dance halls and poker games. The new bill makes it an offense to bet or offer prizes on cards anywhere.

SOMEBODY'S NEXT.

London, Feb. 2.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra left for Paris today traveling incognito.

CRAZY DEED.

Kingston, Feb. 2.—Action of Governor Swettenham in directing his letter to Admiral Davis was not that of a sane man nor was it the deed of James Alexander Swettenham. The letter was written by a man temporarily crazed by an overwhelming calamity. The public will have to look to science for an explanation. This statement was made today by Doane, head of the medical department at Jamaica.

GRAIN MARKET.

Cincinnati, Feb. 2.—Wheat, 78; corn, 46; oats, 42.

BANK CLEARINGS LARGE THIS WEEK

Considering Bad Weather, Which Has Hampered Business for Practically Whole Month of January

INCREASE OVER LAST YEAR.

Bank clearings ..... $610,609
Same week last year ..... $581,453
Increase ..... $ 29,156

Retail business has been unusually fine in the last two weeks of January. Traffic facilities having been disarranged slightly by the rains made the wholesale trade a trifle dull. The bank clearings for January show an increase over the clearings for January 1906.

FOR CITY ATTORNEY.

Mr. John Miller May Run—A. L. Harper Mentioned.
It is stated on good authority that Mr. John Miller, son of Attorney J. G. Miller, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for city attorney to succeed T. B. Harrison. Mr. Harrison will run for the mayoralty nomination. W. V. Eaton, it is said, has about decided to run for representative against Louis Head. A. L. Harper is mentioned as a candidate for city attorney.

THOUSANDS WORK TO PROTECT LEVEE

Memphis, Feb. 2.—The Mississippi river reached its highest stage on record today. Thousands of men are working to strengthen the levee hundreds of miles on each side of Holly Bush.

Bar the Black Man.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—The race question is being introduced in Germany. Cafe proprietors have taken the lead by barring negroes from their establishments. An attempt made by negroes to fight with barmaids is directly responsible for the action being taken.

Marriage License.

Following are the marriage licenses issued today: Virgil Hart to Mattie May Roberts; Benjamin B. Morris to Emma A. Duke; Butler Fondaw to Nellie May Yeltema; T. C. Jones to Francis Eaton.

Arthur Chambers, 22, city, to Katie Morgan, Paris, Tenn., colored.

Marvin J. Collins and Miss Inez Jackson went to Metropolis this morning on the Cowling and were married by Squire Liggett. They were accompanied by Mr. W. F. Carter. Mr. Collins is the well known painter employed by Mr. W. T. Carter.

Will Smith, colored, for jumping on and off railroad trains; and Edward Kelley, of Chicago, for disorderly conduct, were arrested this afternoon.

YOUNG BURGLARS ARE IN THE TOILS

Charged With Committing Three Offenses

Confess to Crimes and Are Held to Grand Jury Under Heavy Bond By Judge Cross.

CLEVER WORK OF DETECTIVES.

Through the good work of Detectives Moore and Baker, Patrolman Gourieux and others, responsibility for several store burglaries the last month was brought home to the guilty parties.

Charged with perpetrating three burglaries, to which they have confessed, five boys, George Gaines, Clover Holland, Fort Jackson, Harvey Fletcher and Bert Roberts, are held under $300 bond to answer to the grand jury. Their ages range from 11 to 15 years, and they are sons of working people on the north side. The crimes with which they are charged are entering F. E. Dunn's drug store, Seventh and Clay streets, the night of January 19, and stealing toilet articles from a window; entering Mitchell & company's grocery and saloon, Finley and Tenth streets, Thursday night, and stealing $7, a pistol, watch, three razors and a lot of cigars, and stealing supplies from Clark's grocery, North Twelfth street.

All pleaded guilty to the Clark burglary; and all but Roberts to the Mitchell job. Gaines and Holland exonerate the others from the Dunn drug store robbery.

Young Roberts has been in numerous scrapes, has done time in the reform school and been charged with highway robbery.

Gaines, Holland and Jackson were in the Illinois Central yards trying to escape on a freight train last night when Patrolmen Clark and Sanders, assisted by Special Officer Patillo Kirk, of the I. C., caught them. The other two were found at their homes and brought to headquarters by Detectives Moore and Baker.

Curfew Law Violated.

The arrest of the boys has brought the continued violation of the curfew law into the limelight again, and police will hereafter look more carefully to its enforcement. In the summer time boys under 16 years are not allowed on the streets after 9 o'clock, and in the winter after 8 o'clock. The law has never been rigidly enforced.

HANDSOME FOREMAN

Causes Strike Among Operatives of Pin Plant.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 2.—Because of the discharge of their handsome foreman, Edward P. Wallace, twenty-five girls employed in the foot-press department of the American Pin company marched out on a strike. Wallace was known to every factory girl in Waterbury as the handsomest foreman in any of the shops. He always won the prize waltzes at the annual balls of the Employers' Aid associations, and he was in great demand to lead grand marches. Therefore, when the company saw fit to give Wallace his dismissal, a committee of angry young women waited upon the superintendent. He was firm in his decision.

"All right, then," said the girls. "We don't care to stay without Mr. Wallace."

The company will not make public the reason for Wallace's dismissal.

FEAR OUTBREAK IN VENEZUELA

Caracas, Feb. 2.—Violent outbreaks are expected here the result of the recent killing of General Mata Y. Blas, governor of Caracas, by political enemies, followers of Vice President Gomez. Friends of the late governor threaten revenge. One report is that companies are being formed and drilled ready for an open attack on Gomez followers.

Carpenters Are Killed.

Cincinnati, Feb. 2.—J. A. Cook was killed and C. Noble and Louis Fischer, carpenters, were probably fatally injured when a scaffold on which they were working gave way today. They plunged 30 feet to the ground.

JURY SECURED IN THAW CASE; COURT ADJOURNS TILL MONDAY

CONTRACTOR OLIVER, WHO WILL DIG THE PANAMA CANAL.

The man who actually will build the Panama canal is W. J. Oliver of Knoxville, Tenn., whose bid for the construction contract was the lowest submitted. Mr. Oliver is a millionaire, having made his money in large contract jobs. Just now he is cutting through Lookout mountain the longest tunnel in America. He is only thirty-nine years old and was born in Massachusetts, but has spent most of his life in the south. He is called a "shirt sleeves" man, which means that his success is due to his personal attendance upon his work. He used to eat and sleep with his construction gangs in a box car while engaged in railroad building. Mr. Oliver's partner is F. C. Stevens, a banker, who was recently appointed superintendent of public works of the city of New York.

McCracken County Farmers Meet at Court House Saturday, February 9

Will Elect Delegates to State Institute Which Convenes at Shelbyville Last Week of This Month

SECRETARY ISSUES HIS CALL

F. F. Rogers, secretary of the McCracken County Farmers' institute, has issued a call for a meeting of the association to be held at the county court house in Paducah Saturday morning, February 9, at 10 o'clock. All the members of the association as well as other farmers interested in the agricultural development of this end of the state are urged to attend. Delegates to the state convention at Shelbyville will be elected.

WORK ON OAKS ROAD

Will Be Urged by Patrons of Rural Route No. 3.

Patrons of rural route No. 3, living on the Oaks road on which the carrier had a mishap several days ago, are again urging the necessity of graveling that road. There is a stretch of 7 miles long of mud road, and the residents raised about $500 for the work at one time. J. F. Kinney was in the city today and stated that he and his neighbors would again take up the matter, as their desire has been cut off since the accident to the carrier. It will be resumed next week.

Has Typhoid Fever.

Mr. G. H. Warnekin of Clarksville, Tenn., is considered seriously ill with typhoid-malaria fever, at his home in Clarksville. He has had fever for several weeks but night before last became much worse. Mr. Warnekin is the owner of prominent tobacco men in Clarksville to have had typhoid fever very recently.

No Good on Double Tracks.

The electrical headlight for locomotives which the Illinois Central road had under consideration for several years, has been abandoned because double tracking interferes with the success of this particular class of light.

Chicago's Epidemic.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Today's health report shows 250 cases of contagious diseases of which 175 are of scarlet fever, and 33 diphtheria.

JEROME DEMANDS ANOTHER CHANGE

Remainder of Talesmen Will Report One More Day Until Counsel Agree

STATES CASE WILL BE SHORT.

Defense Notified to Be Ready to Begin Statement of Case Early in the Afternoon.

BURDEN WILL SHIFT IN TRIAL.

New York, Feb. 2.—The Thaw jury as completed late yesterday follows:

DEMBING B. SMITH, retired manufacturer, foreman.
GEORGE P. PFAFFA, hardware dealer.

CHARLES H. FEOCKE, shipping agent.

OSCAR A. PINK, salesman.

HENRY C. HARNEY, piano dealer.

HARRY C. BREALEY, advertising agent.

MALCOLM S. FRASER, salesman.

CHARLES D. NEWTON, retired railway official.

WILBUR S. STEELE, manufacturer.

JOHN S. DENEEN, railway freight agent.

JOSEPH G. BOTTON, clerk.

BERNARD GERSTMAN, manufacturer's agent.

The selection of the twelfth juror came as a surprise at the end of a long and tedious day—the eighth of the trial immediately after this last member of the panel had been sworn in Justice Fitzgerald ordered an adjournment of the court until Monday.

District Attorney Jerome, who has been contending for the removal of one of the men now in the jury box, but who has failed to gain the consent of the defendant's counsel to a change, was still reluctant as court adjourned to begin actual proceedings without further opportunity to plead with Thaw's attorneys. At his request, therefore, all talesmen who had not yet been examined were ordered to be in court Monday, ready for jury service in case any are needed.

State's Case to Be Short.

Jerome then announced that if there should be no change in the situation in the meantime the state would proceed to place all its direct testimony before the jury at Monday morning's session. The defense was notified to be in readiness to proceed Monday afternoon.

Assistant District Attorney Garvin will make the opening address for the prosecution. The state then will introduce only such witnesses as are necessary to prove that Stanford White was shot and killed by Thaw. In announcing that the introduction will not require more than one session of court Jerome is evidently of the opinion that the cross examination of state's witnesses to the actual events associated with the tragedy may not be very extensive.

Under the watchful eyes of a squad of court officers and county detectives the Thaw jury is more closely guarded than ever today. Jurors are confined in rooms at the Broadway Central hotel and over every entrance and exit to floor, where they live are posted officers. Thaw is thought to have secured a slight advantage in the selection of the jury. No juror was accepted who was not satisfactory to everyone of Thaw's counsel.

Attorney Hartridge announced that while Harry Thaw has stated he will go on the witness stand his counsel has not yet decided whether he will be allowed to do so.

Man Plunges Through Air and Then Asks for a Cigarette.

Washington, Pa., Feb. 2.—Henry Wright, a food carrier, employed in the construction of a new brewery at Bentleyville, today lost his footing and plunged 83 feet from the roof of the structure. In falling he encountered two 2-inch planks, which were broken in two. Two physicians were summoned and, as they entered the building they were met by Wright, who asked one for a cigarette. An examination showed that not a bone was broken and only a few minor bruises sustained. Wright resumed his work.

Polar seas are in every case shallower than tropical.

WEATHER—Rain this afternoon followed by fair and decidedly colder tonight and Sunday cold wave. The highest temperature yesterday, 50; lowest today, 45.

GREEN DALE WILL RUN LIVERY STABLE ALONE.
Mr. Green Dale, son of Col. Bud Dale, of the New Richmond House, has bought out the interest of Dickerson Bros. in Dickerson & Dale's livery stable on Jefferson street near Second street. Green Dale will run the livery stable alone in the future.

In thirty-six Kansas counties the school superintendents met this year are women.

Henry E. Dixey, in "The Man on the Box," at The Kentucky Friday Night.

THEATRICAL NOTES

AT THE KENTUCKY.
Tuesday night—"The Social Whirl" Friday night Henry E. Dixey in
"The Man on the Box."

Social Whirl.

"The Social Whirl," a musical comedy in two acts by Charles Doty and Joseph Herbert, who wrote the book, Mr. Herbert contributing the lyrics, and Gustav Kerker, who provided the music, is the latest musical success under the Shubert management. It will be presented at The Kentucky Tuesday night. The piece was staged by R. H. Burnside, general stage manager for the Shuberts, and is elaborately equipped with all the stage paraphernalia necessary for a production of such magnitude. The name of the piece is supposed to be that of a scandal sheet, of that type which so persistently tears the wherewithal for its maintenance from the nervous purses of the wealthy and socially conspicuous "Archie Endicott," a society youth with an ambition which leans toward the pad and pencil, derives immense enjoyment from his contributions to that journal. His latest contribution is an item concerning a mysterious "J. E.," an automobile ride with a prominent Broadway actress, and their arrest on the charge of violating the speed law; which interesting news is hitched to a threat that unless "J. E." makes himself square with the paper, his full name and family history will be divulged in the succeeding issue. "Julian Endicott," his father, who is unaware of his son's connection with "The Social Whirl," duced "Adonis" and played it for three entire years at the Bijou theater, New York. "The Man on the Box," Mr. Dixey says, is a worthy successor to that other great play and from the success with which it is met, it seems destined to be as financially successful and as long lived as the other.

Charles J. Ross, with "The Social Whirl," at The Kentucky Tuesday night.

BUILDINGS

PADUCAH WILL SEE MUCH WORK NEXT SUMMER.

Some of the Fine Houses Being Planned by Local Architects for the Season.

Many fine residences will be built in the west end this summer. Architects are at work on plans.

Mrs. R. Loeb will build an elegant two-story house at Broadway and Fountain avenue, and an architect is drawing plans to be submitted to Mrs. Loeb in a few weeks for approval. It will be one of the handsomest houses in western Kentucky.

Mr. J. K. Ferguson, of the Ferguson & Palmer company, has purchased property on Fountain avenue between Jefferson and Monroe streets, and will build a handsome house on it this spring.

Mr. George Goodman will build a residence estimated to cost $8,500 at Twentieth and Jefferson streets.

Mrs. M. Carney has purchased the brick residence formerly occupied by Mr. Billy McCandless on West Jefferson street.

RICHES GONE, DIES IN POVERTY

L. C. Kellogg, Formerly Wealthy Flour Man, Dead in Battle Creek.

Battle Creek, Mich., Feb. 2.—Loyal C. Kellogg, once the wealthiest man in southern Michigan, died in poverty today, aged 84. Kellogg ran two big flour mills here and paid farmers of this county a total of $2,000,000 for wheat. He was the first buyer in Michigan to pay $1 a bushel for wheat. In 1866 he cornered flour in the west and expected to make a fortune, but a combination of unfortunate events made the venture a losing one, and he found himself out $352,000. From that time he gradually lost his money until a few years ago he had almost nothing left. He was a native of Syracuse, N. Y., and a foster brother of Dean Richmond, once president of the New York Central railroad.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have closed a contract with the Fairbanks Morse & Co. for the sale of their Marine and Stationary Gasoline Engines, and will gladly furnish prices and full information on request.

S. E. Mitchell

326-328 South Third St.

Old Phone 481-a.

New Phone 743-a

Gas O. Line—"What is that big sheet of tin for that you the carry- ing?"

Ben Zine—"I am going to have a sign painted on it saying, 'The owner of this automobile will positively not be responsible for funeral expenses contracted by moping pedestrians, and hang it on the rear of my machine. I've paid my license.'"

Some men are born small, some shrink, and some others never find out how small they really are.

Keep Posted!

World's happenings, State, National and Foreign, Markets, Sports, Etc. The following papers delivered each day. No extra charge for delivery.

The Courier-Journal
The Commercial Appeal
The Record-Herald
The Globe-Democrat
The Post-Dispatch
The News-Schmitt
The Star-Chronicle
Louisville Times
St. Louis Republic
Chicago Examiner
Chicago Tribune
Nashville American
Cincinnati Enquirer
Chicago Daily News

JOHN WILHELM, Local Circulator
Register Office, 523 Broadway

"What is your attitude on this income tax proposition?" "Simply this: Give me the income and I care not who tries to collect the tax."—Baltimore American.

Eighty-five women bootblacks are numbered among the industrial workers of the United States.

The Kentucky

BOTH PHONES 548.

Tuesday Night, Feb. 5

SAM S. AND LEE SHUBERT

INCORPORATED

Offer the New York Casino Musical Comedy Success!

The Social Whirl

Direct from its all summer run at the New York Casino, with its big cast and production.

Company of 80. Chorus of 60

With—

CHARLES J. ROSS

Of Ross & Fenton.

Songs that are catchy, songs that are tuneful, songs that are a novelty, songs that start your feet pattering.

PRICES

Entire orchestra.....$1.50
Balcony.....50c, 75c, $1.00
Gallery.....25c, 35c
Seats on Sale Monday 9 a. m.

Curtain 8:15.

FRIDAY NIGHT, Feb. 8

Walter N. Laurence
Presents

HENRY E. DIXEY

In Harold MacGrath's Famous Novel

The Man on the Box

Dramatized by Grace L. Fernald.

Exactly at seen 221 nights in New York.

Prices: 25, 35, 50, 75, $1 and $1.50
Seats on sale Thursday 9 a. m.

International Marriages.
In "Dollars vs. Pedigree," in the February Everybody's, George Barr Baker discusses exhaustively the subject of international marriages of a certain sort.

"But all of this constitutes the unpleasant side of international life and marriage," he says, in a summing up. "The press, printing what the public seems to want, devotes its space on this subject largely to the excruciations." Only one side of the question has been exploited, and the public has become wholly misinformed.

"The actual fact is that the great majority of international marriages are happy. Among all right-minded people, regardless of nationality, marriage remains sacred. Because our country, like every other country, produces a vast preponderance of right-minded women, and because right-minded women generally try to adapt themselves to circumstances as they find them, these international marriages are successful. On the other hand men who love their mothers generally have learned to humor their failings quite as affectionately as they applaud their virtues, and this spirit is transferred to the ideal of the future wife long years before that wife is met in the flesh. No country has a monopoly of this fundamental element of manhood. It is the first great leavening touch of Nature in her provision for the kinship of all mankind.

"Nine-tenths of the marriages between Americans and foreign folks, whether rich or poor, whether titled or untitled, are what is commonly called 'happy'; that is, they result in no quarrels that are brought before courts, and they involve no scandals whatever." This from a high authority backed by figures. He continues: "And it is well to bear in mind that there are fewer separations between Americans and Britons, or between Americans and other foreigners, than there between English and English, between French and French, or between Americans and Americans."

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets
Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S Signature is on each box. 25c.

Miss Pechis—"I'm in a quandary. He declares if I refuse him he'll go to the dogs."

Miss Wise—"Well, you certainly can't sacrifice yourself for a worthless fellow like him. You must consider your own welfare."

Miss Pechis—"Oh! of course, but then, on the other hand, I'm very fond of dogs."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Agricultural workers in Germany show a total of 982 societies, with a membership of 21,913.

There are in the world eleven cities with over one million inhabitants.

Miss Marie Nordstrom, with "The Man on the Box," at The Kentucky Friday night.

happens to have been the hero of the ride and his friend, "James Ellingham," was with him. They are reading the item in more or less perturbation when "Jack Ellingham" rushes in with a copy of that issue, and excitedly announces that his initials have appeared in a scandal item. It dawns upon the two real culprits that here is a way-out, and the three form a mutual protection circle to run down the correspondence and treat with him.

During the action of the scene there are fifteen musical numbers. Among the big hits are "Bill Simmons," or "I Can't Keep Still When the Music Plays;" "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking For," with full chorus and stage effects; "Just Kids," a string of musical sketches and "A Rainy Day," sung by eight shopping girls and eight winsome little bootblacks. The dances are full of life and originality.

Notable Attraction.

One of the really notable theatrical events of the year takes place at The Kentucky next Friday night when Walter N. Laurence presents Henry E. Dixey in a dramatization of Harold MacGrath's famous novel, "The Man on the Box." Thousands of appreciative theater-goers have testified since Mr. Dixey left the Madison Square and Lyric theaters, where he ran with his play for 204 nights, that Mr. Laurence has sent on tour, without exception in any way, "The Man on the Box," as seen in New York. To any one who has ever seen "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," or "The Prince Chap," Mr. Laurence's other production on tour, it is only necessary to say that "The Man on the Box" is quite up to their standard. If indeed, it is not a little better. For twenty years Mr. Dixey has been known as America's most graceful, finished and handsome light comedian, and he does not look a day older today than he did when he pro-

A SCENE FROM "THE SOCIAL WHIRL," AT THE KENTUCKY TUESDAY NIGHT.

Why is Your Liver?

WRITE US FREELY.

and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling all your troubles, and stating your age. We will send you FREE ADVICE, in plain sealed envelope, and a valuable 64-page Book on "Home Treatment for Women." Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Languid Liver

is a universal evil of all warm climates, and is common, in the hot season, everywhere. Its effects are quickly felt, in that sleepy, drowsy, tired feeling, headache, loss of appetite, constipation, sick stomach, poor blood, pimples, sallow complexion, nervousness, irritability, melancholy, etc.—all caused by the bilious acids acting on the blood, the cure for which is a quick cleaning-up of the system with

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT (Liver Medicine)

Absolutely no other remedy superior to this for all the common hot climate liver diseases. For over seventy (70) years, its sale has steadily increased, until now it is the standard, vegetable, liver medicine. Its merits may best be proved by its flock of spurious imitations. Every druggist has been imposed upon by salesmen, and has one or more imitations in stock. Be sure YOU get the genuine. Imitations are injurious. Look for the name "Thedford" on the yellow wrapper, for if you get the genuine it will never disappoint. Try it.

At All Druggists, 25c and $1.00

The Week In Society.

WHEN THE VALENTINES COME TO TOWN.

With spankles and bangles and hearts and triangles
Of silver and crystal and gold;
With laces as fine as the frost-fairy traces

When mornings are bitterly cold;
In the daintiest hues of the pinks and the blues
That summer weaves into her crown;
All sprinkled with posies and love-knots and roses,
The valentines come to town.

All puffy and fluffy and tinkling and twinkling,
With fringes of tinsel and pearl,
They tell us the story of love and its glory

In the hearts of a boy and a girl,
And those who display in their tresses the gray

Entwined with the black and the brown
Go back to the playtime of youth and its Maytime

When the valentines come to town.
There's a ghost in the street, and its garments are sweet

With the lavender gathered and dried
In the garden of youth, where the lilies of truth

Were worn by a maiden who died;
And the man who has made on the highways of trade

The mark of his wealth and renown
In fancy once more is the lover of yore

When the valentines come to town.
—Minna Irving, February Lippincott's.

Announcements.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Carnegie library. The program for the morning is: Roll Call—Quotations from the Spanish Student.

1. Calderon—That Arab soul in Spanish feathers—Mrs. Louis M. Riecke.

2. Lope de Vega—What Lope was, was the Spanish drama—Mrs. James A. Rudy.

3. Reading—"Tomorrow" from Lope de Vega.

Miss Lillie Mae Winstead, of 629 Washington street, will entertain the Entre Nous club on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It will be strictly a club affair.

The Paducah Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy will have the regular meeting for February on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. James M. Buckner, Jefferson and Eighth streets.

Mrs. W. A. Gardner, of Fountain avenue is hostess of the Five Hundred club on Wednesday afternoon.

The Crescendo club will have its regular bi-weekly meeting on Thursday at 4:15 p. m., with Miss Virginia Newell at her studio on North Seventh street.

Mrs. Hughes McKnight and Miss Sarah Sanders, of 1616 West Jefferson street, will entertain at cards on Wednesday afternoon at the Palmer in compliment to Mrs. William D. Sanders, of Columbus, Miss.

The Three Musical Club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the Palmer.

Mrs. Herman Friedman, Jefferson street, entertained very delightfully at cards on Friday afternoon in honor of her house guests, Miss Pearl Blum, of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Stella Levy of New Orleans, and other visitors in the city. There were seven tables at each and the house was most attractively decorated.

The first prize was won by Mrs. Henry Well, Miss Viola Ullman took the lone hand prize. The visitors prize went to Miss Carrie Well, of Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Bertha Polz received the consolation prize. A prettily appointed luncheon was served after the game.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Sarah Well, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. J. Jacob, of San Francisco; Miss Pearl Blum, of Nashville; Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans; Miss Carrie Well, of Cleveland; Miss Hattie Frank, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.; Miss Sarah Putnick, of Camden, Ark.

Informal Dance for Visitors.
An informal dance in honor of visitors in the city was given last evening in the parlors of Dr. I. B. Howell's office suite in the Columbia Building. It was arranged by a number of the young men, Mr. and Mrs. Cook Husbands, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Blythe were the chaperones. Present were: Misses Belle Lockett, of Henderson; Evelyn Walker, of Dyersburg; Anita Wood, of Kansas; Florence Schraeder, of Indianapolis; Anne Rhea, of Nashville; Mary Scott, Ethel Brooks, Blanche Hills, Lily Mae Winstead, Belle Cave; Messrs. Wallace Well, Louis Riecke, Jr., Charles Cox, David Koger, Frank Chappell, Walter Iverson, Roscoe Reed, Fred Wade, Frank Davis, E. J. Paxton, I. B. Howell.

The Play's the Thing.
Very delightful was the entertainment given by the Junior Guild of Grace Episcopal church last evening at the parish house of the church. It was cleverly put on and went through without a hitch.

Part I. was devoted to a "Topsy Turvy Concert" excellently rendered by Little Misses Emma Greer, Ellen Ratcliffe, Jennie Belle George, Regina Tyler, Nina Savage and Ina Berry. It was well encored.

Part II. was a comedy drama in 2 acts, entitled "A Black Diamond." It was an all star cast, and each part was splendidly sustained.

Miss Elizabeth Kirkland was clever as "Hilda, the Black Diamond." The parts of Emily Makepeace, Minnie Makepeace and Fannie Makepeace were splendidly brought out by Misses Kathleen Powell, Elizabeth Boswell and Lucia Powell, Miss Mabel Berry as Dr. Zinn was an excellent character. Mr. E. J. Paxton played the college graduate and farmer. Messrs. Douglas Bagby and Rankin Kfklund were the typical English dukes.

The audience was a large and enthusiastic one.

D. A. R. Chapter.
The Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, had a pleasant and largely attended meeting on Friday afternoon with Mrs. L. S. DuBois of Fountain avenue. In response to roll-call, quotations were given from George Washington. It was decided that hereafter the responses should be made with current events of D. A. R. interest. Miss Helen Lowery read an especially fine paper on "Literary Features of the Revolution." The chapter voted to celebrate February 22, with a one o'clock luncheon and Mrs. M. B. Nash, Mrs. H. S. Wells, and Mrs. J. M. Buckner were appointed a committee on arrangements. A petition legally drawn to be presented to the general council asking that crepe and general council asking that cups and chains be attached to the corner fountain of the city, was signed by the chapter. Mrs. Eli Boone, the regent, was made delegates to attend the Continental Congress in Washington City, April 19, and Mrs. Fannie Allard was elected an alternate. A delightful course-luncheon was served after the business session.

Pleasant Dance For Younger Set.
A number of the younger society crowd enjoyed a delightful dance on Thursday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall on Broadway. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Jetta Hobson, Mrs. Annabel Sebree and Mrs. L. S. Glaves and included: Misses Mabel Hart of Henderson; Allie Cabell, Mattie Lou McGathery, Lillian Hobson, Elsie Hodge, Elizabeth Sebree, Nella Hatfield, Gene Morris, Elizabeth Boswell, Helen Hills, Jeanette Petter; Messrs. Roy Prather, Tom Hobson, Chas. Cox, John Cullinane, John Orme, Chas. Leake, Jim McGinnis, Will Baker, Harry Singleton, Jas. Langstaff, George Cabell, Zach Hayes, Monte Lack, Will Rinkcliffe, Milton Wallerstein, Henry Henneberger, Polk.

Mrs. Rudy's Beautiful Luncheon.
A notably beautiful entertainment was Mrs. Henry Rudy's Rose luncheon for Miss Martha Davis on Monday at 1:30 o'clock at the Rudy home on Kentucky avenue. The table was charming in its perfection of detail and ensemble. The center-piece was of pink roses and pink ribbon, the long loops of the ribbon extending over the table. The place cards were daintily hand-painted figures of the bride, matrons of honor and men of the wedding party and were appropriately placed for each guest. These were from St. Louis and made pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The table was set with Mrs. Rudy's own handsome silver, a notable array. The menu was a delicious nine course affair. The laces from Benedicts in Louisville, were enclosed in cases representing a long stemmed pink rose in its perfection of beauty. The individual cakes were iced with pink roses. Toasts were made to Miss Davis during the luncheon. Coffee was served in the drawing room after the luncheon. Miss Davis wore one of her tulle au gowns, a French creation of blue and green striped tulle over pale blue taffeta. Covers were laid for ten and included Mrs. Rudy, Miss Davis, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, Miss Mary Scott, Miss Kathleen Whitefield, Mrs. William Borton, of Atlanta; Mrs. John W. Scott, Mrs. Vernon Blythe, Miss Evelyn Walker, of Dyersburg; Miss Anne Rhea, of Nashville.

Notable Afternoons in High School Annals.
The pupils of the Paducah High school had two very delightful Shakespearean recitals this week. On Monday afternoon, Mr. Norman Hackett, who was here with the Louis James company in "Merry Wives of Windsor" at the Kentucky theater on Monday night, spoke to the High school on "The Haunts of Shakespeare," having spent his summer in England. He then gave several readings from Shakespeare. In the conclusion he made an important talk, or plea, for better English, stressing the misuse of the present English and what the pupils of today could do to prevent it. It was very fine.

Mr. Charles Hanford, who appeared here in "Julius Caesar" on Wednesday night, spoke to the school in the afternoon on the broad scope of a National Theater for America and its power for good in the drama. He read several selections from Shakespeare and by a coincidence they were the same pieces given by Mr. Hackett just two afternoons before, so the pupils had a fine opportunity for comparison of the work and methods of each actor.

Both Mr. Hackett and Mr. Hanford thanked the faculty for allowing them to address the school and seemed to appreciate it as a privilege and honor; and also, as an indication of the broadening spirit of today in looking upon the actor as an exponent of his art.

Card Party For Visitors.
Mrs. Adolph Well gave a pretty card party on Tuesday afternoon at the Palmer House in compliment to a number of visitors in the city. There were ten tables at Euchre. The first prize was won by Miss Flora Harris. The second prize was taken by Mrs. Herman Friedman and presented to the visitors, Mrs. J. Jacob winning in the cut. The lone-hand prize went to Mrs. Victor Voris, and the visitors prize was captured by Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans. A delightful course luncheon was served after the game. Among the out-of-town guests present were:

Mrs. Bernard Well, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. J. Jacob, of San Francisco; Miss Blum, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans; Miss Frank, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby.
He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:

To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

lightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wallace on Thursday evening at their home on North Ninth street. It was the initial meeting of the club for the winter. Last year a number of pleasant parties were given by the club, which has the distinction of giving men equal rights with women in social affairs. Mr. George C. Wallace is the club president.

Alumni Meeting.

The Paducah High School Alumni association held a pleasant meeting on Friday afternoon at the High School auditorium. At the business session, a committee was appointed to confer with the board of education in regard to shortening the school hours. A delightful musical program was rendered at the social meeting.

The March meeting of the Alumni will be the theme for the annual election of officers and also the payment of dues.

Box Parties at Kentucky Theater.

Charles Hanford in Julius Caesar, at the Kentucky theater on Wednesday evening was made a notable social event by a complement of box parties.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. William D. Sanders, of Columbus, Miss., Mrs. S. C. Green, Miss Belle Lockett and Miss Mabel Hart of Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes entertained a party of twelve.

In honor of Miss Schraeder, of Indianapolis, and Miss Wood, of Kansas, the guests of Miss Ethel Brooks, there was another party which included in addition Miss Brooks, Dr. I. B. Howell, Messrs. Edwin J. Paxton and Louis Riecke, Jr.

In the Friedman and Keller box were: Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman, Mrs. John Keller, Mrs. Leopold Friedman, Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris, Miss Frances Wallace, George Wallace, Jr.

For Paducah Visitor.
Mrs. W. T. Lowe entertained Mrs. James Nagel, of Paducah; Mrs. W. H. Brisendine and Mrs. Harvey Lowe, of this city, with an elegant dinner Thursday. The dinner was excellent and served in Mrs. Lowe's usual charming manner and was very much enjoyed by her guests.—Mayfield Messenger.

Delphic Club.
A pleasant morning with Cervantes was enjoyed by the Delphic club on Tuesday at the Carnegie library assembly room. Mrs. Frank Parham gave an interesting character sketch of Cervantes. Mrs. Robert Becker discussed the effect of "Don Quixote" on Spanish chivalry and literature.

Pleasant Social Affair.
The Church Furnishing Society of the First Christian church held a delightful open meeting on Monday afternoon with Mrs. George C. Wallace, on North 9th street. There was an attractive musical program. Light refreshments were served. These are pleasant social occasions and are held once a month.

Informal Birthday Party.
Miss Susie Dabney entertained a few of her friends informally on Friday afternoon at her home on North

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Make's delicious hot biscuit, griddle cakes, rolls and muffins.

An absolutely pure, cream of tartar powder.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

5th street, in celebration of her 13th birthday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with games and delightful refreshments were served.

Kalosophic Club.
The Kalosophic club met on Friday morning with Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, of North 9th street. "Current Topics" was discussed by Miss Marjorie Scott; "Greek Comedy" by Miss Blanche Hills; and "The Development of the Roman Drama" by Miss Hallie Hisey.

Informal Evening.
Miss Lillian Dicke, of 1806 West-er avenue, entertained a number of her friends most pleasantly on Wednesday evening. Light refreshments were served.

Enjoyable Tacky Party.
Miss Flossy Like entertained a number of her friends with an enjoyable tacky party on Thursday evening at her home on South 6th street. The prizes for the most unique costumes were won by Miss Mollie Sullivan and Mr. Velvin Quarles. Delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Essie Smith, Lucy Chelson, Edna Hays, Mollie Sullivan, Flossy Like and Miss Garland; Messrs. W. H. Bouland, Arthur Bouland, Silas Howard, Velvin Quarles and Mr. Like.

The Woman's Club.
The Woman's club met on Thursday afternoon at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church, under the auspices of the Musical department of the club. On the program were: Mrs. Lela W. Lewis, Mrs. David Flournoy, Miss Mary Bolling, Miss Anne Bradshaw, Miss Virginia Newell, Miss Constance Puryear.

Delightful Evening.
Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lyzac pleasantly entertained a few friends on Wednesday evening at their home on North 7th street. The evening was enjoyably spent with pleasant games and music, after which the

(Continued on page six.)

Children have tender stomachs

Most Physics are Dangerous

A child's stomach is very tender and cannot digest food as well as an adult's, and neither can it stand the explosive purgatives which adults are often persuaded to take for constipation and other stomach disorders. Many parents give their children such physics as salts, or the ordinary pills and tablets, that are pleasant to take because of their taste. A child that is dosed with such physics soon forms a habit which if continued means a permanent loss of health. A physic will be constantly required to move the bowels. Children do not object to taking

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

as much as they do even the most palatable candy preparations, and the effect upon them is a thousand times more beneficial. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a cure for all stomach disorders. It is the very best cure for children and adults. It does not create a habit. It does cure. In all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, chronic or acute constipation, biliousness, and all other disorders arising from stomach trouble of any kind it is a quick and positive cure. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

Your money back if it doesn't benefit you.
Pepsin Syrup Co. Monticello, Ill.

First Showing at OGILVIE'S

Of newest Spring Fads, New Laces, New Embroideries, New Waist Materials, New Skirts and Jackets. Of interest to every woman who wants to be well dressed.

Laces Embroidery

Notwithstanding the season has hardly opened we have had to re-order a great many of our fine embroideries and laces.

This promises to be by far the greatest lace season in many a year, and we are equal to the demand, for never in the history of Paducah has there been gathered together such an array of Laces and Embroideries.

New Laces in Vals, light and heavy Cluny, Ellet, Venice, Irish, etc. High-class novelties in lace or embroidery.

Exclusive designs in embroidery and match sets. Great variety of Appenzell Embroidery, which is the new creation.

OGILVIE'S
The Store That Has the Goods

Wash Materials

To the most particular, as well as to those who love to get as much of their spring sewing through in February, we wish to state that we are now showing the first complete line of new Wash Goods in all the new materials and designs, such as Embroidered, Silk Zephyrs, Shimmer silk, Figured Batiste, Zephyrs, Madras, Batiste, New Ginghams, etc.

To you we advise an early selection, for many of the exclusive designs are quickly duplicated.

To Be Seen at
OGILVIE'S
"The Store That Leads"

Skirts Jackets

We are now ready to show you new Spring Skirts and Jackets.

With our vast and well selected line of new and up-to-date Skirts for spring we are in a position to satisfy the most particular woman in Paducah.

Our stock of new Skirts and Jackets is large and complete, and we are prepared to make alterations and repairs.

We guarantee our goods to be the latest and best, and we are prepared to make alterations and repairs.

OGILVIE'S
"The Store That Leads"

Direct from Tampa

Another Case of Havana Blossom 5c Cigars

The rich, full aroma of Havana Blossoms has certainly caught the fancy of Paducah smokers, if we may judge by the demand. Just received another case direct from Tampa last evening and we should like for you to try them. They're not made for style, you know, but the quality is simply great.

GILBERT'S Drug Store
4th and Broadway
Agent for original Allegretti Candies

The Paducah Sun.

AFTERNOON AND WEEKLY
BY THE SUN PUBLISHING CO.INCORPORATED
F. M. FISHER, President.
E. J. PAXTON, General Manager.SUBSCRIPTION RATES: (Entered at the postoffice at Paducah, Ky., as second class matter.)
THE DAILY SUNBy carrier, per week.....$ .10
By mail, per month, in advance .25
By mail, per year, in advance.. 2.50THE WEEKLY SUN
Per year, by mail, postage paid.....$1.00
Address THE SUN, Paducah, Ky.Office, 115 South Third. Phone 155
Payne & Young, Chicago and New York representatives.THE SUN can be found at the following places:
R. D. Clements & Co.
Van Cullen Bros.
Palmer House,
John Wilhelm.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2,

CIRCULATION STATEMENT.

January, 1907.
1.....	3882	.....3808
2.....	3878	.....3874
3.....	3890	.....3899
4.....	3891	.....3898
5.....	3897	.....3890
6.....	3875	.....3877
7.....	3873	.....3844
8.....	3854	.....3882
9.....	3901	.....3804
10.....	3837	.....3846
11.....	3826	.....4299
12.....	3826	.....4239
13.....	3808	.....4107
14.....	3808	.....4107
15.....	3808	.....4107
Total.....	106,612

Increase.....199
Average for January, 1907.....3912
Average for January, 1906.....3713Personally appeared before me, this Feb. 1, 1907, E. J. Paxton, general manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of Jan., 1907, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

PETER PURYEAR,

Notary Public.

My commission expires January 22, 1908.

Daily Thought.

"To dishonor one's self is to break the first and oldest of commandments."

TO WHAT END?

To what end are we working? In an article in the Chicago Record-Herald, William E. Curtis, in discussing the difference between New York and London stores, says:"In his business the British merchant finds the means by which he may live his home life according to his taste. The American merchant finds his life in the game of business itself."There is reason for the difference.
There is meat for reflection in the comparison.The British with their pure Anglo-Saxon and Norman blood, love order and society and social enjoyment. We have their love of order, but with it we have a Teutonic intensity of purpose, a Celtic enthusiasm and a broad western horizon and the untrammelled hope of a new country.These excuse the pace we are going, but in New York, Pittsburgh and other large centers where opportunities have produced men with wealth so great it embarrasses them, they have developed a well defined leisure class; something not contemplated in the simple plans of the founders of our country. Now, we must learn a lesson from our elder cousin. The English know how to spend their time without wasting it. We do not.
We either devote all our time to business or we devote it to riotous living. Many times an American gives up his youth to the accumulation of wealth and position, and then, when affluence comes, he does not know how to enjoy it. Realizing his mistake he goes to the other extreme with his children and teaches them to grow up irresponsible spendthrifts.After all, isn't either kind of a life folly? What are we here for?
What are we working for?Each man has allotted to him some three score years. In that time he must work and play and sleep.
Does a slavery to Mammon accomplish any real good in the world?
Would we not be better off if we emulated the conduct of our more experienced British cousins—use our business to an end, rather than consider the business an end in itself?
We excel the English in our working hours, but in our moments of freedom we lose all the advantage we have gained in the other part of the day.Let us cultivate the social side, so that when we lay down the yard stick and close the ledger, we may still be useful, even more useful citizens than when our minds were taken up with the daily cares and routine of trade.There is something more in life than financial gain. The women of the household, perhaps, would be content with less money and more companionship. It was well said of Mr. Dooley that the American housewife must choose between securing a ti-tled husband by corresponding with a woman she has never seen, and going down to the board of trade and calling one out.We have gone business mad in this country. Of late we have been crying for practical education. Teach our children things in school that will fit them for immediate entrance into the business world, is the admo-nition. Schools are not meant to teach trade. They are meant to teach the higher and better things of life.
To train the adolescent mind how to think in straight lines; to develop the capacity of the mind and soul, to enrich the young intellect with knowledge that will make its possessor and the world happier.The words and works of Rockefeller and Carnegie and their peers are worthy of attention in so far as they throw light on the futility of mere money getting. These men after years of wealth accumulation are striving with all their might to get something out of life in their remaining years.
It is this exclusive devotion to business that has fostered political corruption in America. We are too busy to pay attention to politics, unless we are to gain some advantage by interesting ourselves, at such times usually to the disadvantage of our fellow citizens. We would be a better and a freer people with smaller stores and purer politics.While Washington is apparently perturbed over the guarded declaration of the Japanese premier, concerning a "diplomatic" settlement of the California school situation, we do not believe the situation will develop hostility, because we believe San Francisco will come down off her "high horse" and do the sensible thing, which will avoid the issue—put an age limit on attendance at the public schools. As shown by the government report, so far undisputed, there are 90 odd Japanese children in the public schools, of which number three are adults. Complaint is made against adult Japanese going to school with the little children.
The trouble in California, according to an official statement, also undisputed, is between union labor and the Japanese coolies. All other issues raised are artificially propagated. Now, it is given out semi-officially, that a new immigration treaty with Japan, barring the coolies, is dependent on the attitude of the Californians. In this issue our national honor is at stake. In our treaty with Japan it is stipulated that Japanese citizens shall be accorded all the rights and privileges enjoyed by the subjects of any other nation resident in this country. We entertain unbounded sympathy for the California people in the peculiar tribulations which their westward prospect brings upon them, and our comprehension of the untrammelled prerogatives of a school board to suspend charter provisions and to decorate constitutional clauses with naive, original constructions, have been wonderfully enlarged of late;
but we doubt if even a state legislature may invest a body of school trustees with authority to abridge, define or abrogate the treaty making power of the United States.Missouri walters have a lobby at Jefferson City to prevent the passage of the anti-lipping bill.BAILEY AND ABDUL AZIZ.
Senator Bailey can understand the troubles of the Sultan of Morocco.
Both the Texas statesman and Muley Abdul Aziz are too modern for their people. In Fez it is the camera, the balloon, the bicycle, the motor car, and tennis playing with Christian Englishmen that has aroused the Moslems against their ruler. Bailey forgotten rebellion by trifling with corporations. He could see no impropriety in hobnobbing with a Standard Oil magnate, borrowing money from him to buy horses, and acting as the magnate's counsel. No more could "The Light of the World" see harm in hiring a British physician.
But as Morocco is Moslem; so the last desert boundary, so is Texas "agin" the Trusts in Deaf Smith County as well as in Austin. Whoever would hold the State loyal, as Tillman holds South Carolina, must, like Tillman, raise his voice loud and often against the peculiar peril. Bailey perhaps believed that Texas was as much a Western as a Southern commonwealth; and, of course, in the West corporation Senators are not so rare as the dodo. In the South the conception still prevails that a statesman is normally a poor man and, in order to qualify as an exhorter against the abuses of corporate wealth, he must be as free from suspicion as a country editor. The Texas Legislature has told Bailey what it thinks of his not altogether extreme flirtations with the Trusts.
How will Bailey's colleagues at Washington treat the episode? Will his great influence wane, in the Senate and with the people, or will he, having learned his page, become not only wiser but stronger than before?

—Collier's.

The cheapest thing in California is sunshine, and the cheapest thing in Kentucky is moonshine.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

On Woman's Rights.

Editor Sun:
Your liberal "Voice from the People" department has been a veritable forum where all subjects and opinions might be aired and debated without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude. Now, I wonder if a "voice" might be permitted to make a few remarks about the editorial of yesterday afternoon on the subject of "Woman's Rights?"The Sun is admired, trusted and loved for its breadth, courage and patriotism, but not—not particularly —distinguished for its humor, and now here is an editorial funny enough to be from the pen of George Ade—and he has never been funnier than when dealing with the woman question in any of its (shall I say "manifold") phases. The editor states, with characteristic "tell the truth and shame the devil" attitude, that he "sees no reason, as a matter of right, why a woman should not vote."
She owns property, she claims the protection of the flag, she has sons and daughters and is interested in the moral and political welfare of the nation." He also says, speaking with scoff of the limitations of franchise bills now pending in different legislatures, "Why woman should be allowed to vote at all and then be restricted in the right of suffrage, is beyond the ken of logical intellect."Here our editor, in admitting the truth of these principles, takes his stand in the company of most of the great minds of this age, those especially who are trained to reason purely apart from prejudice and the influence of custom. I refer to the solid ranks of learned jurists and lawyers of this country and England, of which Justice Brewer is only one of many great leaders and spokesmen. But having conceded the "right" and intelligence, and the capability of using them, the editor drops back into the place of the "average man," who is the embodiment of "chivalry," by confessing a grave doubt of the moral stamina of the sex. "What would be the effect on our women?"
he anxiously inquires. "Will women uplift politics, or will politics lower women?" "Man has placed woman on a pedestal. He would keep her above sordid things," etc.The funniest thing in the editor's attitude, and in this whole situation, except one, is that the men who "put her on the pedestal" openly declare that they have to keep her there by main force and awkwardness; that if they should relax their vigilance she would allow herself to be "enriched and cheapened; in other words that she is as good as she is because she is guarded and forced to be so. But the great joke, of all, is that the women—most of them—seem utterly unconscious of the position in which this attitude of their chivalrous "protectors" puts them, and are touchingly grateful to said protectors for "making them be good."There are some serious statements scattered along through this funny editorial. One is, that elections are among the "sordid things." If this is true then politics are about as bad as can be, and it is high time that new methods, new forces and new standards were introduced. If the country is to be saved from the bowwows. When a certain theory is proved unsafe and ineffectual, it is time, at least, to try another.One other time honored but always funny point which the editor assumes, is that "bad men" and "bad women" are supernaturally vicious, and contaminating, at the polls.

"Good women" are accustomed to jostling against them on the streets, in the stores, riding with them on railroad trains and in street cars, sitting beside them for hours at the theater, in the parks, and it is actually whispered, in the churches, but it is always asserted that "bad men" become devouring monsters, raw-head and bloody bones incarnate, at the polls. How can these things be?

etc., without our special wonder?
As for bad women, they are to be encountered every day and hour in the same way. Would there be greater necessity for social contact at the polls than any other place of business?"Would good women find time from their household duties to mix actively in politics?" What a question in this day of clubs, card parties and lodges! Does the editor ever find time from writing funny editorials to look over the social columns of his own paper?A more serious question in the near future may be: "Do not women, especially of the leisure class, need to study the duties of good government in order to conserve and develop their own energies and powers, instead of dissipating them in frivolous devices to kill time?"The editor's humor never "jets up" to the last paragraph in which he speaks of "influence" and controlling votes. The truth is, as everybody knows, a woman may, sometimes, influence a man's vote. The only vote she "can control" is a bought vote, or that of a hen-pecked husband. Heaven save us from seeing in print a real man's honest opinion of the woman who can do the latter, or of the voter so controlled.There are people in this world who believe that the necessity and habit of wheedling their way through life accounts for most of the weaknesses and artifices of the "female" character.It is a sad but indisputable fact, that there are some bad—very bad—men in office everywhere; they are on councils, on school boards, in legislatures and in congress.When sensible, dignified women are interested in questions which concern their homes and children, which would be the more decent, self-respecting way to help effect righteous measures—to wheedle around dirty politicians for days or weeks trying to influence votes, as many "awakened," earnest women are forced to do, or to take ten minutes to go to the polls and cast a ballot.An overwhelming percent of professionally "bad" women (negroes especially), the class so dreaded at the polls, are pitifully ignorant; this being the case, many who appreciate the inherent "right" of women suffrage, but have not been willing to allow the right, lest it might be inexpedient, believe that the enfranchisement of women with an educational qualification would result in the highest good in the individual woman, to the home, to society and in politics.

M. L. C.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT
Every dose makes you feel better. Lax-Po keeps your whole insides right. Sold on the money-back plan everywhere. Price to cents.

A Skin Game.

"The genius of expert criminals," said a criminal lawyer, "is a matter of common knowledge. But let me tell you the most gifted rogue I ever knew was a safe robber. He shaved all the cuticle or outer skin off the fingers of one hand, so that the nerves were almost on the surface. Then, when he turned the combination of a safe, his sense of touch was so delicate that he could actually feel when he had reached the right combination. The rest was easy. When not working he wore a glove on that hand."—New York Sun.Russia has added 16,000,000 to its population in a decade.One taste of success is better than a mouthful of defeat.

NATURE AS A RECONSTRUCTOR.

"Nature repairs her ravages—repairs them with her sunshine and with human labor."Osteopathy is one of Nature's most valuable instruments in repairing her ravages. Take the Osteopathic treatment of headaches. It locates the primary cause and removes it, not in administering a common known sed-ative to on—and all alike, but by a simple mechanical manipulation.So, in digestive disorders Osteopathy restores the nervous equilibrium to the stomach, bowels, liver, pancreas, etc., and a unity of action established the disorders are readily controlled and cured.Constipation can be cured only by observing nature's laws. The regular movements of the bowels depend on their nerve and blood supply. If one or the other is disturbed in any way there is disorder—sickness. Osteopathy here again is Nature's cure.I should like to tell you personally at any time of the great success I am having with the treatment and refer you to some of your friends who will eagerly attest to what Osteopathy is doing or has done for them. Phone me at 1407 at any time.DR. C. B. FROAGE, 516 Broadway.

Clearance

Sales

in Every ## Department

at

The New Store

ROY L. GILLEY & CO.
103-107 BROADWAY
CHICAGO TO NEW YORK

Next Week Will Be the Gala Week at Wallerstein's

MEN'S AND BOY'S OUTFITTERS320 AND BROADWAY
PADUCAH, KY.

Established 1868

Special Sales Every Day From 9 to 10 a. m. and From 3 to 4 p. m. for ONE HOUR ONLYMONDAY morning at 9 o'clock starts a series of Special Sales, which we will continue every day during the coming week from 9 to 10 o'clock in the morning, on the main floor of our building, and from 3 to 4 p. m. in the Boys' Shop.There will be placed on sale for 'ONE HOUR ONLY some of the greatest values it has ever been your good fortune to take advantage of.SPECIALS FOR MONDAY NeckwearChoice of 100 dozen 50c, 75c and $1.00 Ties, from 9 to 10 a. m. Not more than two ties to each customer,

19c

Positively none sold at this price after 10 o'clock.

IN THE BOYS' SHOP

Shirt Waists and BlousesFor one hour only, from 3 to 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon, choice of our entire stock of 50c, 75c and $1 Shirt Waists and Blouses—not more than two to each customer,

33 cents

Positively none sold at this price after 4 o'clock.

JOHN D'S FRIEND.

Only Man He Ever Really Trusted
Is Dead.New York, Feb. 2.—Samuel C. T.
Dodd, until recently the Standard Oil company's chief counsel, died at 9 o'clock last night at Pinehurst, N.
C., at the age of 79 years. Nearly three years ago Mr. Dodd, when at work in his office, was suddenly stricken by a clot of blood on the brain. He was engaged in an important piece of legal business, which he refused to drop. He stuck to his work until it was completed, and by so doing signed his own death warrant. Had he summoned medical aid at once, it was said by his physicians, he might eventually have completely recovered. Since his retirement from active service Mr. Dodd has been the recipient of a large pension from the Standard Oil company. Mr. Dodd had been called the only man whom Mr. Rockefeller ever implicitly trusted. For thirty-nine years he performed yeoman tasks for the corporation that he served. But so unobtrusively did he do his work that it was only a few years before his re-direment that his name became known to the public. On those rare occasions when the Standard Oil company decided to issue a public statement it was always Mr. Dodd who drew it up.

Hotel Arrivals.

Palmer—W. H. Nutter, Chicago;
H. A. Ellison, Hattiesburg, Miss.; J.
T. Robits, Philadelphia; William
Vinson, Chicago; W. J. Patterson,
Chicago; C. F. Colville, Mt. Vernon;
A. G. Steele, Bowling Green; C. S.
Humphreys, Florence, Ala.; G. C.
Edwards Murray, W. W. White, Chicago; S. S. Barrett, Pittsburg; B. L.
Reid, Louisville; R. A. Parkinson, Cleveland; Rid Reed, Smithland; A.
L. Harrington, Nashville.
Belvedere—H. A. Howe, St. Louis;
C. O. Denney, Nashville; J. C.
Campbell, St. Louis; E. L. Latham, Cairo, Ill.; Guy Hollingsworth, St.
Louis; A. B. Wayne, Chicago; J. B.
Cooper, Richmond; C. G. Beale, Evansville, Ind.; H. E. Butterfield, Newark, N. J.New Richmond—J. R. Moore, Clifton, Tenn.; W. R. Miller, Waverly, Tenn.; M. A. Adams, Columbus;
George Jones, Maxon Mills; H. F.Watson, Elizabethtown, Ill.; A. H.
Perry, Knight; J. L. Hughes, Bayou;
H. A. Phifer, Way, Tenn.; T. L.
Vickers, Hamlettsburg, Ill.; E. E.
Lay, Birdsboro; A. B. Sneider, New Liberty, Ill.

FOR SALE.

Two-story frame building of eight large airy rooms, upper and lower hall, double front porch, large back porch, sewerage, porcelain bath, nicely papered, newly painted, having city water and cistern, stable and other out-buildings. Lot 50x173. This is an excellent place for hotel or boarding house, only four blocks from market house, situated on North Third street, three blocks from Broadway. Price $5,000, one-third cash, balance one and two years, H.
C. Hollins, Real Estate, Rentals and General Insurance, Truheart Building.O. D. Harrison reports that his first attempt to "make a skidoo" stick" was successful. Many Paducahites who read how to make them in Friday's Sun have been working on them. Mr. Walter Smedley, deputy county clerk, has made several.

New Covert Coats Black or Tan

$5.00 to $14.50

Rudy, Phillips & Co.

New Lingerie or Silk Waists

New Styles and New Materials For Spring.

LOCAL NEWS

—For Dr. Pendley ring 416.
—Drink Belvedere the master brew.

—Dr. Gilbert, osteopath 400 1/2 Broadway, Phone 196.
—Use Standard Soot Destroyer. Sold everywhere.

—When you order a rig from us you are talking to one of the proprietors or capable clerks (not a driver or hostler) who writes, files and fills the order at appointed time. Palmer Transfer Co.

—The joint finance committee of the general council met yesterday afternoon at the city hall and audited bills against the city to be presented for allowance Monday night.

—City subscribers to the Daily Sun who wish the delivery of their papers stopped must notify our collectors or make their requests direct to The Sun office. No attention will be paid to such orders when given to our carriers. Sun Pub. Co.
—Drink Belvedere the Paducah beer.

—Use Standard Soot Destroyer. Sold everywhere.

—John Niehaus has opened a new drug store at Eighth and Husband streets.

—Get your meals at Whitehead's restaurant, 215 Broadway, these bad days. NKe, polite service guaranteed.

—For high-grade wallpaper see Kelly & Umbaugh, 321 Kentucky Av.
—Belvedere beer is a home product. Remember that.

—Place your orders for wedding invitations at home. The Sun shows as great an assortment as you find anywhere at prices much lower than you pay elsewhere.

—Pending rebuilding of the burned N. C. & St. L. freight depot at Murray, box cars are being used for storing freight. Material for the reconstruction of the depot has been ordered and is being rushed to Murray as fast as possible.

—You know your calling cards are correct when they come from The Sun. Script cards and plate $1.50 a hundred, the Old English $3.

—Use Standard Soot Destroyer. Sold everywhere.

—Wedding invitations, announcements and every character of engraved work is given careful, personal attention at The Sun.

—Globe Wernicke filing cases and all supplies for them, also the best line of carbons. A full line of blank books and all kinds of office supplies. Telephone orders promptly filled. Old phone 436. R. D. Clements & Co.

—We have Sing Shot that will destroy all insects on plants; and Plan Food that will make plants grow. Brunson, 529 Broadway.

—City License Inspector George Lehnard is reviewing the city license tax receipt book securing a list of merchants, professional men and persons in any business for which a license tax is charged, who have not secured a license, and will prosecute them. He expects to tolerate no delinquent license tax payments.

—Use Standard Soot Destroyer. Sold everywhere.

—Sexton, the sign writer, all kinds of sign and advertising writing. Fine painting of every character, in side work and carriage painting and repainting. Phone 401.

—Dr. V. Byrth has moved from Fraternity building to 525 Broadway next to Ragister building. Office phones 870, residence 372.

—Upright pianos from $150 to $200, to reduce our stock of slightly used pianos we make these offers. W. T. Miller & Bro., 518 Broadway.

—Mr. C. A. McFarland has been appointed by the Smith-Premier Typewriter company to succeed Mr. W. L. Helvey in this district. Mr. McFarland will maintain his headquarters at 425 Broadway in Paducah, Ky.

—Use Standard Soot Destroyer. Sold everywhere.

—For choice fresh carnations 50 cents per dozen, phone Schmaus Bros. Also cut roses. No order too large to fill. Both phones 152.

TOO BIG

ENGINE NO. 1039 WOULD NOT GO IN ROUND HOUSE.

It May Mean Enlargement of Quarters for Engines in This City Soon.

Because of its enormous proportions, engine No. 1039, the biggest owned by the Illinois Central, could not be "stabled" in the local round house and was forced to stand on the "sand track" over night. The engine is of the Rogers make, and the following are her dimensions: Drives seven feet six and a half inches in diameter, three wheel connected; total length from tip of pilot to tank truck, 75 feet 3 inches; tank capacity, 7,000 gallons; 2,200 more than the 800 class freights; steam capacity 400 pounds; runs at an average of 250 pounds of steam.

The big engine was taken off the St. Louis and Chicago division and taken to the "south end" to use in making faster time because of numerous delays. It brought in passenger train No. 104 yesterday morning from Memphis, and went out this morning on No. 103 to Memphis. The doors to the round house were too small to admit the monster, and if this type is continued in service on the south end, it will mean the enlargement of the round house and machine shop doors.

FOR SALE.

Beautiful five room frame cottage, about six years old, finished partly in hard-wood, rooms average 15x15, heated with good grates, porcelain bath, sewerage available, city water. This is a piece of property that is worthy of investigation and cheap at the price. $1,250 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance. Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

The St. Louis Republic, and the Memphis Commercial Appeal contain many new features each Sunday. On sale at Clements' book store, Van Culin's, Thompson's, 318 Broadway, and by newsboys over the city.

Miss Margaret Harlan has gone to Kuttawa to spend Sunday with relatives.

Attorney W. A. Anderson, of Barrow, is in the city on business today.

Mr. Will Rudy is sick at his home in Kentucky avenue.

The One That Got Away.

The biggest fish you ever caught
Was the one that got away;
The biggest chance you ever caught
Was the one that wouldn't stay.
But if another chance you seek,
Don't sit around and wish.
A little WANT AD. try this week—
That hook will catch the fish.

PEOPLE AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Art Department Work.

The department of Art of the Woman's club held a meeting this morning with Miss Anna Webb, the chairman, at her home on South Fifth street. This department has been thoroughly organized and is already doing special work in a course of study in Art and Architecture, at the regular meeting, the first Saturday morning of each month. There are twenty-five members of this committee. The study this morning was on the beginning of Architecture. Notable examples of early architecture were discussed in clever papers by: Mrs. Victor Voris, Misses Webb, Dow Husbands, Belle Cave, Jennie Gilson and others.

The first open meeting of this department will be given on February 21, with an attractive program. Miss Alice Compton will discuss "The Angel in Art"; Miss Dow Husbands "The Saint in Art" and Miss Webb "The Madonna in Art." These will be interspersed with musical selections.

Charity Club to Give Tea.

The Charity club will have a tea on the afternoon of Shrove Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George C. Wallace on North Ninth street. Light refreshments will be served and an admission of 10 cents charged for the charity fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene White, of Elizabeth street, are parents of a new girl baby.

Mr. Abe Reaser, of Evansville, Ind., is in the city spending a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving, of Memphis, are visiting in Paducah.

Dr. H. T. Hessig resides at Wewoka, Indian Territory.

Mrs. Samuel White, of Nashville, is visiting Mrs. William McMahon.

Mr. Mike Galvin and wife, of South Sixth street, have returned from visiting in Indianapolis and Terre Haute, Ind.

Mr. John Rehkopf, of the J. G. Rehkopf Buggy company, yesterday returned from the east.

Miss Katherine Winfrey, of Twelfth and Jefferson streets, is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

Fireman J. Green, of Ohio and Eleventh streets, is ill.

Mr. Leon Blythe, of Louisville, is in the city.

Mr. Thomas Upton, business manager of the Dixie Mills company, left today for New York and Philadelphia on a week's business trip to purchase stock.

Mr. Charles Brown returned from Mayfield this morning.

Mr. Oscar Hank returned from Mayfield this morning.

Miss Grace Williams, of Krebs Station, arrived this morning to visit in the city.

Miss Mattie Baughan, of Richmond, Va., is visiting her uncle, Master Car Builder T. M. Baughan, of the Illinois Central.

Miss Ethel O'Brien left this morning for a visit in Springfield, Tenn.

Miss Jennie Anderson, of Memphis, arrived this morning to visit Mrs. P. E. Stutz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sheridan, of Halle, Tenn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John B. Beas, of Clay street.

Mrs. C. L. Riker, of Seventh street and Kentucky avenue is sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Parker have moved to this city from Lexington, Tenn., and will live at the Cochran apartments, Ninth and Monroe streets.

Charles Blaney, of Clark street, is sick.

IN THE COURTS

Circuit Court.

Because the trial of the case of Max B. Nahm, et al. against F. W. Katterjohn, entails the expense of a special judge, J. E. Robbins, of Mayfield the jury is being held in attempt to reach a decision. It was given the case at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and has been out since. Judge Robbins may discharge the jury at the adjournment of court this afternoon.

A report of John Rock, assignee of the Paducah Towing company, showing $226.82 in his hands, was filed. The case of J. W. Pendley for Floy Pendley, against the Illinois Central Road, was continued until next term.

Yesterday afternoon before adjournment of court Judge Reed dismissed finally all jurors except those in the Nahm-Katterjohn case, and will take up the equity docket Monday.

County Court.

A copy of the will of Dr. A. J. Welton, who died four years ago at Paris Landing, Tenn., was filed yesterday in county court for the purpose of making legal transfers of property in Paducah.

Deeds Filed.

Mary Coleman to Fred Mensker, property on West Tennessee street, $1 and other considerations.

Alfred Boyd to Henry Beach, property on the Metropolis road, $140.

Fred Hoch and wife to E. B. and N. V. Wren, property in the county, $2,100.

Miss Julia Lee has qualified as a notary public.

Mrs. M. F. Emery to Mrs. M. Carney, property on Jefferson street near Twentieth street, for $4,700.

Police Court.

Jim Doolin, white, for petit larceny, and Henry Stone, colored, for a breach of peace, were dismissed in the police court this morning.

County Court.

The estate of Fred Hunter, the I. C. engineer who died three days ago, was this morning ordered into the hands of Public Administrator F. G. Rudolph.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot is ill today and unable to be at his office.

Enjoyable Evening.

Misses Stella and Hattie Ross at their home, 1108 Trimble street, entertained very pleasantly last evening Games, music and refreshments were the features of the evening. Those present were: Misses Nona Darnell, Ora Holt, Daisy Bryan, Eva Darnell, Emma Smotherman, Daisy May, Geneva Clayton, Stella Ross, Ina Rawlson, Nola Hall, Bessie Watts, Ruby Derrington, Myrtle Hoyer, Jessie Gott, Hattie Ross, Sadie Moore, Carrie Clayton, Lizzie Moore; Messrs. Athel Robertson, Mack Brogan, Rupert Robertson, Wilbur Ray, Riley, Terry Thompson, Archie Householder, Marvin Langston, Charles Sneed, Luther Long, Gerd Robertson, Robert Johnson, Charlie Sanders, Willie Straub, Walter Sanders, Ed Russell, Bonta Rouse.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Sheriff John Ogilvie will receive 2,000 notices Monday of raises of taxes from the board of county tax book supervisors, and it will require the greater part of two weeks with all his deputies to serve them to tax payers in the county. February 18 is the date set for the board to begin hearings protests to raises.

FOR SALE—Eight room residence, three blocks from Broadway on South Third street, situated on lot 57x173, fronting bricked street and concrete sidewalk. Excellent location for flat. Price $2,500, one-third cash, balance easy payments. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate, Rentals and General Insurance. Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Residence of five rooms and hall on Clay street, twelve blocks from river located on lot 50x165 to private alley, having shade trees, stable and other necessary out buildings. Price $1,500. Terms arranged. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and Rentals, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Beautiful suburban home of 62 acres within five minutes drive of McMinnville, Tenn. The farm has a cottage of three rooms and hall, stable, granary, cellar, well barn and 1,400 fruit trees of various kinds. Price $1,550. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Five-room residence just beyond city limits, in high class neighborhood, four acres of ground and amply provided with out buildings, wells and other improvements. $1,500 cash. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

RIVER NEWS

River Stages.

Cairo	48.0	0.7	fall
Chattanooga	9.3	4.3	rise
Cincinnati	22.5	2.0	fall
Evansville	36.6	2.4	fall
Florence	9.5	5.0	rise
Johnsonville	14.1	1.3	rise
Louisville	8.2	9.0	st'd
Mt. Carmel	19.9	1.2	fall
Nashville	12.1	1.1	fall
Pittsburg—Missing.
Davis Island Dam—Missing.
St. Louis	16.0	0.5	fall
Mt. Vernon—Missing.
Paducah	43.3	1.0	fall

The gauge this morning registered a clean foot fall for the last 24 hours. The stage is 43.3. Business at the wharf is slow.

Grand Tower, Ill., is the scene of a struggle to save the two fine steamers Chester and Tennessee. These two steamers went into the pool at Grand Tower on the Mississippi behind the big ledge of rock which extends out into the river, to escape the danger from the floating ice. Through some mistake the Chester was not kept far enough away from the bank and has got caught. The river froze on the other side of the boat and is now falling leaving the Chester high and dry. The steamer is expected to topple over into the river which is over 80 feet deep there. The Tennessee is lying along side of the Chester and is expected to be lost also. This pool is known as the lower eddy and has been used for years by steamboats to avoid the ice in the river. The big rick extending out into the river forms a breakwater that makes a perfect refuge for a boat. In the lowest stage of the river the pool is 80 feet deep.

Should the two steamers fall over into the pool and sink, they would be practically a total loss. A towboat is there trying to pull the steamers off into the river but it is improbable that it can succeed. The Chester and Tennessee are controlled by the Massengale interests which own a large amount of stock in the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company of which the Kentucky, Savannah, Saltillo, Memphis and Clyde in this trade are part. The Chester is a fine steel hulled boat and was only recently repaired in first-class condition. River men in St. Louis and all along the Mississippi river are watching with absorbing interest, the effort to save the steamers.

Falling rivers are especially dangerous to laid-up steamboats. It requires the utmost care to avoid being left on the bank. The City of Memphis was nearly lost in Cairo a few years ago by being left high and dry on the levee.

With the rate of fall becoming more rapid as the river gets lower, it is probable that the Lee liners, the Georgia Lee and Peters Lee will get back to business next Wednesday, one leaving Cincinnati and the other leaving Memphis on the same day.

Hugh Crouse will go down on the Dick Fowler Monday morning to Mound City to bring up the John Hopkins. The Hopkins will leave on Tuesday for Evansville.

Getting in nearly on time is a habit which the Joe Fowler has acquired this week. The steamer came in today and left after attending to business, on the return trip.

Sheep Green came from Nashville yesterday to go out on the Henry Harley as pilot. The wheel on the Harley is being rushed today and the steamer is being coaled. They expect to get away with the Harley tonight or early in the morning for Nashville.

Newton Harlin has resigned his place as second clerk on the Kentucky and has accepted a similar position on the Joe Fowler. Albert Rittenhouse will go out as second clerk on the Kentucky.

Big tows of coal are headed this way from Louisville. The Joe B. Williams and the Sprague will arrive next week on the way south. Falling rivers are the best moving time for towboats. When the river is rising, it is the highest in the middle and tends to shove the boats toward the shore; but when the river is falling, it is the lowest in the middle and tends to draw the boats away from the shore. With a big tow the latter condition is preferable.

The Scotia went to Joppa with several barges of ties yesterday.

Cars can be shoved around the river switch by this afternoon as the river is getting away from the tracks.

With a river full of water rivermen still come on shore after their drinking water when they are in Paducah. No other town has as good water.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon will fall very rapidly during the next several days. At Paducah and Cairo will continue falling and at an increasing rate.

The Tennessee from Florence to below Johnsonville, will rise very rapidly during the next 36 hours.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, will continue falling.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel will continue falling.

A PILE OF SILVER 4 U

Forks that were $2.50
Now $1

Table Spoons $2 to $3
Now $1

Tea Spoons $1.50 to $2
Now 75c

Knives $2.00 to $3.00
Now $1

U Must B Quick

GEO. O. HART & SONS CO

WANT ADS.

Yes—you can get another servant through a want ad.—and—let us always hope—a better one than the last.

Taxes levied against us by the state are light and easy compared to the taxes we impose upon ourselves through neglect of our opportunities. Everyone who fails to read the want ads. increases his "tax" 50%.

An army of "un-attached people" live in furnished rooms, or lodgings. These people are of all sorts—from the "nicest" folks to the least-nice ones. If you advertise your lodgings for rent you will have a better chance to select the kind you are to have in your house.

EAT at Whitehead's restaurant.

ROOMS—For rent with board, 212 South Fourth.

WANTED—A cook. Colored preferred. Both phones 415.

GRAY HORSE and rubber tire buggy for sale cheap, 640 Broadway.

FOR HEATING and Stove-wood ring 437 F. Levin.

H. H. MEYER, the fresco artist. Old phone 1561.

ROOM and board, 408 Washington. Old phone 2500.

CLOTHES cleaned and repaired. Jas. Duffy, Phone 956-A.

OVERSTREET, the painter. New phone 1025, old phone 975.

WILLIAMS Furniture exchange, 533 South Third. Furniture bought and sold. New phone 900-A.

EXPERIENCED stenographer desires position at once. References exchanged. Address W. care Sun.

FOR RENT—Cheap three connecting rooms, with bath, 918 Monroe.

FOR SALE—Nice 4-year-old horse, safe for lady to drive, also nice runabout and harness. Old phone 988.

SEND your clothes to the Faultless Pressing club, 302 1/2 Broadway. High & Browder, proprietors. Bots phones 1507.

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping or rooms for board. Apply 403 South Seventh. Old phone 1749.

FOR SALE—Lot on Salem avenue 80x114. Price $600. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Lease on flat H. in Cochran apartments, and a lot of handsome furniture, carpets and draperies in use only two weeks. Apply at the flat.

WANTED—Board and room between Ninth and Twelfth on Broadway or Jefferson, by young man. Private family preferred. Address K. care Sun.

FOR SALE—First-class brick store of two stories with small cottage in rear, situated Fifth and Jones. Price $2,750 with satisfactory terms. H. C. Hollins, Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

FOR SALE—Beautiful farm of 35 acres close to city and in high class suburban neighborhood. $3,500. H.

C. Hollins, Real Estate and General Insurance. Trueheart Bldg. Telephone 127.

WANTED—HOUSE GIRL—Experienced girl in housework can get good wages and permanent position by applying immediately at 328 North Eighth street.

LOST—An old gold cross and chain, between Harbour's store and Sixth and Broadway or from there to 392 South Sixth. Return to Sun office for reward.

LOST—Mosaic brooch, crescent-shape, on street car, or at parish house of Episcopal church, last night. Return to this office and receive

Kidney Disease

Nature has given you kidneys to keep your blood clean and pure. As the blood flows through them the waste matter it brings from all over your body is filtered out through millions of little tubes, so small that they can be seen only under a microscope. Unless these tiny tubes are kept open, waste matter accumulates in your blood.

If the blood is chilled in any part of your body, or held back by pressure or injury, uric acid turns into little crystals, resembling sharp grains of fine sand. Over-feeding also may produce so much waste matter that your blood can't keep the uric acid dissolved, and the crystals are formed. Your kidneys cannot pass these crystals—they lodge and collect in the little filtering tubes, where they scratch and irritate the tender fibres, just as grains of sand would do in your eye. This irritation causes the pain in your back which warns you of kidney disease, Bright's Disease and death.

At the very first sign of kidney disease, you must take LIFE PLANT. LIFE PLANT has the power of dissolving the hard uric acid grains, being provided by Nature for just that purpose. You will feel relief from this, and in a short time LIFE PLANT will have gently washed every track of uric acid out of your kidneys (or wherever else it may exist) and give the organ back its blood-purifying powers. Thousands have saved themselves by taking LIFE PLANT. Read what Mr. John Lennon, of Wadsworth, Ohio, says:

"In regard to your medicine, I think it can't be beat in the world. Once I was so bad that I could not walk. I took one bottle and can say that I feel all right. My kidneys troubled me and I was dizzy in my head. That had about all left me. I think one more bottle will fix me all right. I can't say too much for LIFE PLANT."

If you have any trouble whatever, write your symptoms to I. J. Mizer, M. D., President of the Life Plant Co., who will send you his personal advice, free. Our book—GOOD HEALTH—mailed to anyone free on request.

THE LIFE PLANT CO., Canton, O.

Mamma—"If you had two pennies, Willie, and I was to give you three more, how much would you have?" Willie—"Make it dollars, mamma. What's the use of being stingy with make-believe money?"—Chicago News.

Man is often put into a melting mood by the tears in a woman's eyes.

Many a successful prima donna took her first lessons calling cows.

Backache, Pain in the Hips and Groins

In most cases are direct results of WEAK KIDNEYS and INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER. The strain on the kidneys and in flamed membranes lining the neck of the bladder producing these pains.

LARK'S KIDNEY GLOBES WILL CURE IT!

Two doses give relief, and one box will cure any ordinary case of Kidney or Bladder trouble. Removes Gravel, cures Diabetes, Seminal Emissions, Weak and Lame Back, Rheumatism and all irregularities of the Kidneys and Bladder in both men and women. Sold at 50 cents a box on the No Cure No Pay basis by McPherson's drug store, Fourth and Broadway, sole agents for Paducah, or sent by mail upon receipt of price to Lark Medicine Co., Louisville, Ky.

WHEN AND WOMEN. The best remedy for urinary troubles, inflammation, irritations or obstructions of the urinary passages. Painful, and not astringent. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 for $2.75.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an operation and waste water every day before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am well and happy. During the nine years before I used Cascarets, I suffered almost miserably with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. I can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

Cascarets
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
CANDY CATHARTIC

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sickens, Weakens or Grips, Do Not Stop in the Bowels. The genuine tablets stamped C.C.C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N.Y. 60¢ ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

SANTAL-MIDY
Standard Remedy for Gleet, Gonorrhea and Runnings IN 48 HOURS. Cures Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

THE Masquerader

By KATHERINE CECIL THURSTON,
Author of "The Circle," Etc.

Copyright, 1904, by Harper & Brothers

CHAPTER V.

FOR the space of a minute there was silence in the room; then outside in the still night three clocks simultaneously chimed 11, and their announcement was taken up and echoed by half a dozen others, loud and faint, hoarse and resonant, for all through the hours of darkness the neighborhood of Fleet street is alive with chiming.

Chilcote, startled by the jangle, rose from his seat. Then, as if driven by an uncontrollable impulse, he spoke again.

"You probably think I am mad"—he began.

Loder took his pipe out of his mouth. "I am not so presumptuous," he said quietly.

For a space the other eyed him silently, as if trying to gauge his thoughts. Then once more he broke into speech.

"Look here," he said. "I came to-night to make a proposition. When I have made it you'll first of all feel at me, as I feel when I made it to myself. Then you'll see its possibilities, as I did. Then," he paused and glanced around the room nervously, "then you'll accept it, as I did." In the uneasy haste of his speech his words broke off almost unintelligibly.

Involuntarily Loder lifted his head to retort, but Chilcote put up his hand. His face was set with the obstinate determination that weak men sometimes exhibit.

"Before I begin I want to say that I am not drunk—that I am neither mad nor drunk." He looked fully at his companion with his restless glance.

"I am quite sane—quite reasonable," he said.

"Again Loder essayed to speak, but again he put up his hand.

"No. Hear me out. You told me something of your story. I'll tell you something of mine. You'll be the first person, man or woman, that I have confided in for ten years. You say you have been treated shabbily. I have treated myself shabbily; which is harder to reconcile. I had every chance, and I chucked every chance away."

There was a strained pause, then again Loder lifted his head.

"Morphia?" he said very quietly.

Chilcote wheeled around with a scornful gesture. "How did you know that?" he asked sharply.

The other smiled. "It wasn't guessing. It wasn't even deduction. You told me or as good as told me in the fog when we talked of Lexington. You were unstrung that night, and I—well, perhaps one gets over-observant from living alone." He smiled again.

Chilcote collapsed into his former seat and passed his handkerchief across his forehead.

Loder watched him for a space. Then he spoke. "Why don't you pull up?" he said. "You are a young man still."

Why don't you drop the thing before it gets too late?" His face was unsympathetic, and below the question in his voice lay a note of hardness.

Chilcote returned his glance. The suggestion of reproach had accentuated his pallor. Under his excitement he looked ill and worn.

"You might talk till doomsday, but every word would be wasted," he said irritably. "I'm just praying for by something like six years."

"Then why come here?" Loder was pulling hard on his pipe. "I'm not a dealer in sympathy."

"I don't require sympathy," Chilcote rose again. He was still agitated, but the agitation was quieter. "I want a much more expensive thing than sympathy, and I am willing to pay for it."

The other turned and looked at him. "I have no possession in the world that would be worth a fiver to you," he said coldly. "You're either under a delusion or you're wasting my time."

Chilcote laughed nervously. "Wait," he said. "Wait. I only ask you to wait. I'll let me sketch you my position. It won't take many words."

His grandfather was a Chilcote of Westmoreland. He was one of the first of his day and his class to recognize that there was a future in trade, so, breaking his own little twig from the family tree, he went south to Wark and entered a shipwrecking firm. In thirty years' time he died, the owner of one of the biggest trades in England, having married the daughter of his chief. My father was twenty-four and still at Oxford when he inherited. Almost his first act was to reverse my north and placing together the family friendship. He married his first cousin, and then, with the Chilcote prestige revived and the shipping money to back it, he entered on his ambition, which was to represent East Wark in the Conservative interest. It was a big fight, but he won—as much by personal influence as by any other. He was an aristocrat, but he was a keen business man as well. The combination carries weight with your lower classes. He never did much in the house, but he was a power to his party in Wark. They still use his name there to conjure with."

Loder leaned forward intently. "Robert Chilcote?" he said. "I have heard of him. One of those fine unostentatious figures—strong in action, a little narrow in outlook, perhaps, but essential to a country's staying power. You have every reason to be proud of your father."

Chilcote laughed suddenly. "How easily we sum up when a matter is impersonal! My father may have been a fine figure, but he shouldn't have left me to climb to his pedestal."

Loder's eyes questioned. "In his newly awakened interest he had let his pipe go out."

"Don't you grasp my meaning?" Chilcote went on. "My father died and I was elected for East Wark. You may say that if I had no real inclination for the position I could have kicked, but I tell you I couldn't. Every local interest, political and commercial, hung upon the candidate being a Chilcote."

"Did what eight men out of ten would have done. I yielded to pressure."

"It was a fine opening." The words escaped Loder.

"Most prisons have wide gates," Chilcote laughed again unpleasantly. "That was six years ago. I had started on the Liverpool track four years earlier, but up to my father's death I had, and in the realization of my new responsibilities and the excitement of the political fight I almost put it aside. For several months after I entered parliament I worked. I believe I made one speech that marked me as a coming man." He laughed derisively. "I even married."

"Yes—a girl of nineteen, the ward of a great politician. It was a brilliant marriage, politically as well as socially, but it didn't work. I was born without the capacity for love. First the social life pulled on me, then my work kept me, then there was only one factor to make life endurable—morphia. Before six months were out I had fully admitted that."

"But your wife?"

"Oh, my wife knew nothing—knew nothing. It is the political business, the beastly routine of the political life, that is wearing me out." He stopped nervously, then hurried on again. "I tell you it's hard to see the same faces, to sit in the same seat day in, day out, knowing all the time that you must hold yourself in hand, must keep your grip on the reins."

"It is always possible to apply for the Children's Home."

"To retire? Possible to retire?" Chilcote broke into a loud, sarcastic laugh. "You don't know what the local pressure of a place like Wark stands for. Twenty times I have been within an ace of chucking the whole thing. Once last year I wrote privately to Yale, one of our big men there, and hinted that my health was bad. Two hours after he had read my letter he was in my study. Had I been in Greenland the result would have been the same. No; resignation is a meaningless word to a man like me."

Loder looked down. "I see," he said slowly. "I see."

"Then you see everything—the difficulty, the isolation of the position. Five years ago—three—even two years ago—I was able to endure it. Now it gets more unbearable with every month. The day is bound to come when—when"—he paused, hesitating nervously—"when it will be physically impossible for me to be at my post."

Loder remained silent.

"Physically impossible," Chilcote repeated excitedly. "Until lately I was able to calculate—to count upon myself to some extent—but yesterday I received a shock—yesterday I discovered that—that—again he hesitated painfully—"that I have passed the stage when one may calculate."

The situation was growing more embarrassing. To hide its awkwardness, Loder moved back to the grate and rebuilt the fire, which had fallen low.

Chilcote, still excited by his unusual vehemence, followed him, taking up a position by the mantelpiece.

"Well?" he said, looking down.

Very slowly Loder rose from his task. "Well?" he reiterated.

"Have you nothing to say?"

"Nothing, except that your story is unique and that I suppose I am flattered by your confidence." His voice was intentionally brusque.

Chilcote paid no attention to the voice. Taking a step forward he laid his fingers on the lapel of Loder's coat.

"I have passed the stage where I can count upon myself," he said, "and I want to count upon somebody else. I want to keep my place in the world's eyes and yet be free."

Loder drew back involuntarily, almost struggling with bewilderment in his expression.

Chilcote lifted his head. "By an extraordinary chance," he said, "you can do for me what no other man in creation could do. It was suggested to me—unintentionally by the story of a book—a book in which men changed identities. I saw nothing in it at the time, but this morning, as I lay in bed, sick with yesterday's fit, it came back to me. It rushed over my mind in an inspiration. It will save me and make you. I'm not insulting you, though you'd like to think so."

(To be Continued.)

LOOKS LIKE BRIBE; JUDGE IS ANGERED

Litigant Acts Rashly When He Sends Presents

Judge's Daughter Receives Wedding Gift From Stranger and Writes to Father.

LATTER SAYS TO DECLINE IT

Muskokee, I. T., Feb. 2.—An expensive wedding present sent to Miss Carrie Sulzbacher, of Kansas City, caused the giver to be severely reprimanded by Judge Louis Sulzbacher, the recipient's father, in the federal court at Eufaula today. The present was sent by F. W. Sharp, a litigant in the court.

Sharp and Sloan are in the oil business. They are alleged to have driven Fred Sawyer, another oil man, from the possession of an oil lease in the Spania, I. T., field, some time ago. An injunction was asked for, and the case went to the Eufaula court, where Judge Sulzbacher presides. The case was decided today against Sharp and Sloan. Then Judge Sulzbacher commented on the wedding gift.

Gives $2,000 Silver Set.

Sharp himself is in Texas. His attorneys did not know anything about the gift. Mr. Sharp's alleged gift consisted of a silver dinner and dessert set, valued at $2,000. Miss Sulzbacher did not know Mr. Sharp. Thinking that he was probably a friend of her father, she immediately informed the latter of the circumstance. The federal judge then notified his daughter that the gift should not be accepted. In the meantime the silver is in a Kansas City bank. It will be returned to Mr. Sharp.

The case in which Sharp was a litigant involved a lease on 120 acres of land in the head of the Glenn pool, which is estimated to be worth $100,000. The land belongs to Zeke Moore, a negro, now serving five years in the Leavenworth (Kan.) penitentiary for larceny. Sharp and Sloan have a lease on the land, and Fred Sawyer has a deed to it. It was on this property that a fight occurred recently in which Sharp and Sloan, with fifteen, drove off 30 men working on the land of Sawyer.

Makes a Fatal Mistake.

When Sharp obtained a temporary restraining order against Sawyer in Judge Sulzbacher's court at Wagoner, I. T., he thought the case was permanently decided and went to Texas.

The next day Judge Sulzbacher got a telegram from a jewelry house in Dallas, requesting the name of his daughter. He sent the name and address. The following day Miss Sulzbacher received the box of expensive silver. Miss Sulzbacher will be married early in March to J. S. Bradwin, an attorney of New York City.

Oldbeau—Darling, I would die for you. Miss Pinkleish—Then you may name the day. Oldbeau—For our wedding. Miss Pinkleish—No; for your funeral.—Chicago Daily News.

No woman is homely whose soul may be seen shining in her eyes.

when—when"—he paused, hesitating nervously—"when it will be physically impossible for me to be at my post."

Loder remained silent.

"Physically impossible," Chilcote repeated excitedly. "Until lately I was able to calculate—to count upon myself to some extent—but yesterday I received a shock—yesterday I discovered that—that—again he hesitated painfully—"that I have passed the stage when one may calculate."

The situation was growing more embarrassing. To hide its awkwardness, Loder moved back to the grate and rebuilt the fire, which had fallen low.

Chilcote, still excited by his unusual vehemence, followed him, taking up a position by the mantelpiece.

"Well?" he said, looking down.

Very slowly Loder rose from his task. "Well?" he reiterated.

"Have you nothing to say?"

"Nothing, except that your story is unique and that I suppose I am flattered by your confidence." His voice was intentionally brusque.

Chilcote paid no attention to the voice. Taking a step forward he laid his fingers on the lapel of Loder's coat.

"I have passed the stage where I can count upon myself," he said, "and I want to count upon somebody else. I want to keep my place in the world's eyes and yet be free."

Loder drew back involuntarily, almost struggling with bewilderment in his expression.

Chilcote lifted his head. "By an extraordinary chance," he said, "you can do for me what no other man in creation could do. It was suggested to me—unintentionally by the story of a book—a book in which men changed identities. I saw nothing in it at the time, but this morning, as I lay in bed, sick with yesterday's fit, it came back to me. It rushed over my mind in an inspiration. It will save me and make you. I'm not insulting you, though you'd like to think so."

(To be Continued.)

HURTS SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES

Simple Prescription for Home Made Kidney Cure

Makes Kidneys Act and Overcomes Rheumatism and Bladder Troubles.

RELIEVES BACKACHE QUICKLY

To make up enough of the "vegetable treatment," which is claimed to be relieving nearly every sufferer who uses it for backache, kidney complaint, sore weak bladder and rheumatism; get from any good prescription pharmacy one half-ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon and three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Soak well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Those who have tried it claim that it acts gently, but thoroughly on the kidneys relieving backache and bladder trouble and urinary difficulties almost instantly. Many cases of rheumatism are known to have been relieved within a few days, the pain and swelling diminishing with each dose.

A well-known local druggist, who is in a position to know, asserts that this prescription, wherever it becomes known, always ruins the sale of the numerous patent medicine rheumatism cures, kidney cures, etc. It is a prescription which the majority of patent medicine manufacturers and even certain physicians dislike to see published. Few cases, indeed, which will fail to fully yield to its peculiar soothing and healing influence. Being composed of common every-day vegetable ingredients, which can be gotten from any druggist, it makes up a good honest and harmless remedy and at small cost.

Bride's Cruel Rebuff.

A story is going the rounds of the army and navy circles, concerning a young bride and groom who came to Washington for their honeymoon. One day the groom was not feeling very well, and the bride suggested that while he lay down and rested she would do some shopping, and, having established the gentleman comfortably on the couch, the little lady departed.

In several hours she returned with her arms full of bundles and the pride of possession in her heart. She came confidently to a door in the long corridor and tapped.

"Here I am, honey."

No answer.

"Honey, honey! It's me. Open the door, honey."

Silence within the room. The little bride began to feel discouraged, but she called and tapped more vigorously than ever.

"Honey, honey, open the door, I'm back."

Dead silence inside the room, and the lady waiting outside the door began to have dread visions of serious illness inside, or else a creeping fear that the bridegroom had forgotten her and departed in search of some of his old-time bachelor friends. Still, she made a final effort.

"Honey, are you very ill? Shall I get the doctor, honey?"

She tapped long and loud this time, and when she paused a gruff voice shouted from inside.

"There's no honey here. This isn't a beehive—it's a bath room."—Joe Mitchell Chaplin's "Affairs at Washington," January National Magazine.

It always costs more to live when one has credit at the store.

New Directory

Copy for our next directory will go to press January 30. All changes and additions should be received before this date. Our directory is the Recognized city directory of the well-to-do. You are so-called and commercially lost if your name does not appear.

EAST TENNESSEE TELEPHONE CO.
Incorporated

THE AVERAGE LEGISLATURE.

A Lot of Bungling, Goodhearted Amateurs.

The legislature couldn't make one good law in three months, let alone three thousand, without turning its some direction for aid and counsel. Our well-meaning farmers, and grocers, and manufacturers, are probably endowed with that profound ignorance of basic problems which comes out in the form of a loud contempt for "science" and "theory." But now they are in the language of the committee room, up against it. They have got to make three thousand laws in three months, without much of an idea, in some cases, of what the blessed things are all about. A good many of our farming and manufacturing friends would really like to make good laws; but probably not one of them is competent to draw a bill that will hold together. To make it worse, these laws, good or bad, will come down forcibly on every man, woman and child in the State. In view of this fact—that the legislature, made up of bungling, goodhearted amateurs, with a leavening of crooks, is bound to turn out just about so many laws anyway—do we citizens, the real "interests" most vitally affected by the mass of legislation, take any adequate measures either to put in able men, or to supply accurate and thorough-going information as a basis for the legislation? Not at all. We send our legislators down to the capital, and go on, serenely vague, about what we like to call "our business." The snail's on the thorn, God's in his Heaven, all's right with the world! And meanwhile the attorneys for the railroad and the "public service" company, and the big brewers and manufacturers are drawing up bills which our farming friends don't understand, and are crowding them through with doubtful statistics and specious reasoning which our farming friends may question but which they have neither the time nor the resources to dispute—Success.

Friction.

An adjutant from a big Philadelphia insurance company was recently sent to Harrisburg to adjust a loss on a building that had been burned.

"How did the fire start?" asked a friend who met him on the homeward trip.

"I can't say with certainty, and nobody seemed able to tell," said the adjutant. "But it struck me that it might have been the result of friction."

"Why what do you mean by that?" asked the friend.

"Well," said the insurance man, gravely, "friction sometimes comes from rubbing a $10,000 policy on a $5,000 building."—Harper's Weekly.

A theatrical star by any other name would be just as self-important.

NEW STATE HOTEL

D. A. Bailey, Prop.
METROPOLIS, ILL.

Newest and best hotel in the city. Rates $2.00. Two large sample rooms. Bath rooms. Electric lights. The only centrally located hotel in the city.

Commercial Patronage Solicited.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS and COLDS

Price 50¢ & $1.00 Free Trial.

Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

Commercial Patronage Solicited.

CITY TRANSFER CO

Now located at Glauber's Stable.

We are ready for all kinds of hauling. TELEPHONE 499

The Best is None Too Good

Early Times

And

Jack Beam

Bottled in Bond

IS EIGHT SUMMERS OLD

Watch the Government Stamp.

Oak Dale Hotel
Brookport, Ill.
Rates $1 a Day. Everything O.K.
Mrs. J. A. Luckman, Proprietress.

Henry Mammen, Jr.

Removed to Third and Kentucky.
Book Binding, Bank Work, Legs and Library Work a specialty.

ST. LOUIS AND TENNESSEE RIVER PACKET COMPANY

FOR TENNESSEE RIVER.

STEAMER CLYDE

Leaves Paducah For Tennessee River Every Wednesday at 4 p. m.

A. W. WRIGHT, Master
EUGENE ROBINSON, Clerk

This company is not responsible for invoice charges unless collected by the clerk of the boat.

EVANSVILLE, PADUCAH AND

CARGO LINE (Incorporated)

Evansville and Paducah Packets.

(Daily Except Sunday.)

Steamers Joe Fowler and John S. Hopkins, leave Paducah for Evansville and way landings at 11 a. m.

Special excursion rate now in effect from Paducah to Evansville and return, $4.00. Elegant music on the boat. Table unsurpassed.

AT THE CHURCHES

LUTHERAN—The Rev. Mr. Ben- to, a theological student of St. Louis, will fill the pulpit. Business session at 2:30 o'clock.

EVANGELICAL—The Rev. Wil- liam Bourquin, pastor. Morning sub- ject: "God's Will." Evening subject, "Old Folks at Home."

Christian.

TENTH STREET—Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock, Quincy Wallace, su- perintendent. Communion as usual.

FIRST—Sunday school and com- munion at usual hours.

MECHANICSBURG—Sunday school at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian.

FIRST—The Rev. W. E. Cave, pastor. Morning subject, "Strength of Hope." Evening subject, "A Poor Actor in a False Part." Sunday school at the usual hour.

KENTUCKY AVENUE—The Rev. J. R. Henry, pastor. Morning sub- ject, "The Power of Personality." Evening subject "The Forgiveness of Sins." Services in the lecture room.

Episcopal.

GRACE—The Rev. David C. Wright, rector. No early communion tomorrow. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning service sermon and Holy Communion 10:45. Evening prayer and sermon 4:30. Teacher's Training class Monday 7:30 p. m.

Baptist.

FIRST—The Rev. Calvin Thomp- son, pastor. Morning subject, "Pub- lishing the Tidings." Evening sub- ject, "Who Goes There, How Are They Treated, and How Long Will They Stay?"

SECOND—The Rev. L. G. Gra- ham, pastor. Usual morning and evening services.

NORTH TWELFTH—The Rev. J. R. Clark, pastor. The pulpit will be filled in the evening by the Rev. E. H. Cunningham. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

Methodist.

BROADWAY—The Rev. W. T. Bolling, pastor. Morning subject, "Suffering of Christ and the Glory"

Following. "Communion services in the morning. Usual evening services. THIRD STREET—The Rev. Pe- ter Fields, pastor. Usual morning and evening services. TRIMBLE STREET—The Rev. G. W. Banks, pastor. Usual morning and evening services.

Church Notes.

At the meeting of the Union Teach- ers' Training class next Monday night, there will be an exhibit of helps and appliances used in the various Sunday schools of the city. Su- perintendents are requested to send to the parish house some time on Monday any maps, charts, models, il- lustrations, or appliances used in the teaching of the lessons or conducting the school. The leader of the class will send for anything too bulky to be carried if he is notified of the same by telephone.

The Woman's Home Mission soci- ety of the Trimble street church will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. L. Puckett, 926 Harrison street.

Candlemas Day.

Today is Candlemas Day, a church holiday in the Catholic church, and services were held this morning at St. Francis de Sales church at 7:30 o'clock. Candlemas commemorates the presentation of the infant Christ in the temple and the purification of the Virgin Mary. It was instituted in the first half of the fifth century, and first observed in the east. It takes its name from the custom, as old as the seventh century, of carry- ing lighted candles in procession in memory of Simeon's words at the presentation of the infant, "a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of the people of Israel." In this day the Roman Catholics consecrate the candles to be used in their churches, and in the household, throughout the ensuing year. The feast is also ob- served by the Lutherans.

FOR SALE.

Brick Store on Clements street, Me- chanicburg, 20x60 with additional room 12x60 at side of main building, glass front to ceiling, situated on lot 40x130. Two-story stable across back end of lot, opening on 16 foot alley. Price $1,800. Terms satisfactorily arranged. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate, Rentals and General Insurance, True- heart Bldg. Telephone 127.

Rudy, Phillips &amp; Co.

219-223 Broadway

First Display of Spring Wash Goods

FOR the next week we will make a special show of our Spring Wash Goods, all just newly arrived and consisting of some most attractive patterns in Percals, Gingham, Figured Madras, Linens and the like, everything that you will need for early spring—shirt waist suits or children's dresses. We want you to come down this next week, while all of these are on display, where you can see every new style and select some of the prettiest for your own use. As for price, we are always right on that—just a little cheaper or a better quality for the price than you get elsewhere—not mentioning the much larger assortment we furnish.

We Are Showing Our Entire New Lines of Percals. We Handle the Best Ones Made. 36 Inches Wide, Fast Colors, and Urge You to Buy Now. Price 12 1-2c Yard.

25 pieces new tailor plaids, in gray and brown, 36-inch wide for children's dresses, special for 10c for yard

36-inch French Percals, white grounds, neat small figures, fast colors, for shirt waists, children's dresses and shirt waist suits 20c per yard

36-inch printed India Linon, a beautiful show fabric, looks like the old-fashioned Linen Lawns, fast colors, for 20c per yard

Solid colored Linens, blue, pink, green, red and black, last colors, 36 inches wide, for children's dresses, 25c per yard

50 pieces 30-inch fast colored Batistes, all of this sea- son's best styles, this is the best cloth at the price that will be shown this season, 10c per yard

25 pieces 30-inch book fold Madras, in all the best styles, for boys' waists, children's dresses and etc., a special value for 10c per yard

New Gingham, fast colors; the greatest assortment we have ever shown, buy them now while the stock is com- plete, 10c and 12 1-2 per yard

This season's new dress material "Chiffon Lisse" the prettiest cloth we have ever shown, in all designs and color, 25c per yard

Special

Ready-to-Wear Department

Monday

OUR sample line of fine well made Underwear that we are offering at manufacturers' cost, is still complete. It consists of more than a thousand pieces—Corset Covers, Skirts, Chemise, Gowns and Drawers. No two garments alike; all well made, nicely trimmed, cut full size and made of best quality materials and sold to you for less than you can make them up for. Corset Covers 25c to $3.00; Drawers 25c to $3.75; Skirts 50c to $10; Gowns 50c to $8.50.

We still have a good assortment of Coat Suits, in blacks and blues, that we are selling at one-half regular prices: A $22.50 suit for $11.25; a $25.00 suit for $12.50, less than the separate skirt or coat would cost you.

Good line of Mixture Coats, full length, made of all wool materials, a splendid garment for service. $5.00 each.

Special

Monday

"Swastika"

Indicates goodness toward man, being a sign or symbol for good health, long life, prosperity and much pleasure to the wearer. Four times during the year this sign may be seen at midnight which means

Continue With Courage

The Swastika is one of the most widely diffused symbols, 1446, 1503, B. C. The name is Indian and connected with the Great Son God called Astika. It has been found in Europe, Asia and America and is now the object of endless speculation among scholars. Made in Sterling Silver enameled.

Brooches 50c & 75c Hat Pins 75c
Charms 50c & 75c Stick Pins 50c
Fobs $1.00 to $2.50 each.

We also have a nice line of Cut Glass, Handpainted China and Silverware for wedding presents. Next time give us a call

J L WANNER, Jeweler 311 Broadway

This and other $1.50 garments are in the $1 assortment. Arn't such values surprising? Arn't they worth com- ing for?

A BIG MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE

The lowest prices muslin undergarments will be sold for during 1907. Clearing Sale prices on all remaining winter goods.

Wonderful bargains on newly ar- rived Dress Goods.

Nobby new spring styles in new Skirts, Fashionable Suits, Stylish Silk and White Lawn Waists.

Newly arrived lots of long French Kid Gloves.

The new and beautiful American Lady Corsets at $1 to $2.

The new 1907 20c Gingham marked special at 16 2-3c a yard.

Three thousand yards of new Em- broideries in a fine lot assortment, marked at prices that will dispose of these lots quickly.

New Silks fresh from the looms, not tender from age, priced at prices that will please you.

These new assortments and the al- most daily arrival of other new as- sortments together with our Great Cut Price Clearing Sale of all remain- ing winter goods.

The slaughter prices in the Cloth- ing Department, big values in the Shoe Department with the introduc- tory low prices in the new Grocery Department, all combine to make this big store the place of unusual buying interest during the days of February.

The time for Muslin Underwear buying is now. That's what this Muslin Underwear sale means for you. Better take advantage of this special trade event while prices are at the lowest they will be for the whole year.

Harbour's Department Store

North Third Street
JUST OFF BROADWAY